Theatrical play opens Thursday

The dramatic production of Hedda Gabler will be staged March 5-7 in the Hilltop Theatre on the Weatherford campus. Performances are at 7:30 p.m. nightly.

Reservations can be made by calling the SWOSU Hilltop Theatre Box Office at 580.774.6046 on Mondays through Fridays from 4-7 p.m.; admission is $5 for adults, $3 for non-SWOSU students and free for individuals with a valid SWOSU I.D.

At the center of Hedda Gabler is one of the greatest roles in modern drama, the fascinating Hedda Gabler — portrayed by Chelsea Hardin (Cordell, senior), who finds herself stranded in a seemingly ordinary but dangerously imbalanced domestic system. It includes her husband, the ambitious scholar George Tesman (Larry Cribbs, Olney, Texas), his doting Aunt Lynda (Amber Hayes, Colbert, senior), his ambitious judge Brack (Merritt Skinner, Broncho), and the powerfully ordinary but danger­ously imbalanced Judge Brack (Merritt Skinner, Broncho), who finds herself stranded in a seemingly ordinary but dangerously imbalanced domestic system. The cast is completed with Tesman's maid, Berta, portrayed by Woodward junior Rhiannon Jensen.

THE SOUTHWESTERN is the student newspaper of Southwestern Oklahoma State University. It is published every Wednesday during the fall and spring semesters, except during holidays and finals week. Students in the editing class serve as section editors, and students in the news gathering and reporting class serve as writers. The editorial board meets every Wednesday at 2:00 p.m. in the journalism lab, Campbell 211. The Southwestern reserves the right to refuse comments from the student body, faculty, and administration in the form of letters to the editor. All letters must include a name for consideration, however, the name may be withheld upon request. The opinions expressed within signed editorials are the opinion of the writers; the opinions expressed in unsigned, boxed editorials are the opinion of the staff. Neither is necessarily the opinion of the university administration, staff or faculty.

Movie Review

The Oculus

For anyone who loves a good horror movie, Oculus is a must see.

The movie is about a mirror that takes over the lives of the adults that put it in their home and begin to kill other people and sometimes themselves. It takes place at two different time periods: the present and 11 years earlier.

The movie begins with Alan (Rory Cochrane) and Marie Russell (Katee Sackhoff) moving into their new home with their two children; Tim (Brenton Thewaites) and Kaylie (Karren Gillan). Alan buys a mirror to decorate his office with and days later, strange things begin to happen.

The actors did a great job in the film. Cochrane's character was consumed in the mirror by a ghost named Marisol and turned against his wife and children. Sackhoff played a paranoid wife who thought that her husband was having an affair and by snooping through his office, she too became a victim of the mirror.

Gillan and Thewaites characters, after they are grown up, become very different. Gillan wanted to find the mirror and destroy it after what it did to her family. Thewaites was in a psychiatric hospital for 11 years and was convinced that the mirror never did anything and that his parents were sick people.

The movie continued with Gillan's attempt to prove him otherwise. After resolving the mirror in an auction, she sets up cameras so the two can look back on their footage to see if anything supernatural happens. The mirror begins to mess with their minds and they act themselves when they were younger. Thewaites tried to leave so he could go see his doctor but the mirror wouldn't let him go.

The film messes with your own mind, not knowing if what is happening in the movie is real or if it's just the mirror giving off the illusion.

I believe the director succeeded incorporating the past with the present of the two siblings and you'll be surprised with how some things just don't change.

I would highly recommend this movie to anyone who enjoys a good psychological horror film and it will keep you on the edge of your seat.

Oculus is rated R and is now available on Netflix, iTunes, and Amazon.

Restaurant Review

Luigi's

If you are looking for a taste of Italy, look no further than 111 W Main Street where you will find Luigi's Italian Restaurant.

Italian food is my favorite, so it takes more to please me than the average customer. That being said, I was delighted by the food and the overall experience I had at Luigi's.

At any Italian restaurant, it all starts with the bread. If the bread is not good, that is already a bad sign of things to come. At Luigi's, the bread is very tasty and they even bring a nice bowl of olive oil for you to dip the bread, which makes it even better.

For my main course I ordered a sampler of three types of raviolis. The different raviolis would be great individually as a single meal, but if you like variety, the combo is the perfect way to go. My favorite was the spinach ravioli. Other dishes Luigi's specializes in are chicken parmagiana, baked ziti, stromboli, spaghetti, lasagna, and many others.

The service at the restaurant was great and friendly. I had five people in my group and not once did a cup go empty. When we ran out of the appetizer bread, we were quickly given another basket before anyone realized that the first basket was empty.

Some menu items are a little on the expensive side. However, there are plenty of less pricey entrees to choose from. Also, you end up with enough food to take some home, so in a way you're ending up with two meals for the price of one, and all of us college kids need a good deal when it comes to food.

Luigi's is open Tuesday-Thursday from 11 a.m. to 9 p.m., Friday and Saturday 11 a.m. to 9:30 p.m., Sunday 11 a.m. to 8 p.m., and closed on Mondays.

Meet Kylie Morgan! She enjoys working out and playing zombie video games, especially _The Last Of Us_. She enjoys eating Italian, but her favorite restaurant to eat at is Chiu Wu in MWC, OK. When asked why nursing, she said, “Pharmacy wasn’t for me, so I switched.” She finds it interesting that people are obsessed with the number of cars at an intersection and all of them turning right at the same time. If she could go anywhere in the world, she would want to visit her mother’s cultural roots in the Philippines. She is a really cool person, so stop by Oklahoma Hall and say hi!

Obi Van-Lare

Hometown: Malverne, NY
Classification: Sophomore
Major: Pre-Pharmacy
Residence Hall: Rogers Hall

Meet Obi! Obi is an RA at R&J Hall aspiring to get into the pharmacy program here at SWOSU. He is gamer who loves playing both the Super Smash Bros series as well as _The Legend of Zelda_ series. He does not have a very specific taste in music but he will listen to anything on the television or internet that sounds appealing. Something that most people might not know about him is that he dislikes common American foods like cheese, chocolate, or peanut butter but he’ll make an exception to certain things like pizza. When not studying, he enjoys learning about different customizing and exploring operating systems that are in phones, desktops, or laptops. If anyone needs help in this area, Obi has a talent in designing websites and making flyers. When asked what he missed most about being a kid, he replied, “One thing I miss as a child is not having to worry about grades being turned in at a certain time or having to worry about school.” What he loves most about being at SWOSU is hosting Super Smash Bros tournaments and only competing in it due to trash talk, then realizing there was no competition. If you think you can beat him at Smash, you’ve got another thing coming! Come meet Obi at R&J!

Clay’s Corner

By: Clay Brooks

How does one choose what they want to be for the rest of their life? Are they led to the decision based on how much money they’ll make or the amount of respect earned that comes with the title? What astounds me is that there are people in the world that know, when they’re young, exactly what they want to do. My best advice in pursuing a career is to spare no possibility. So many times, young adults discount themselves so quickly without giving the proper effort. Pursue what YOU want. Not your parents. Not your significant other. You. This is your moment. Who’s to say how it plays out, other than you? Find your passion. Find the road to take you there, and find somebody to pay you to do it. Happy choosing.
