TO THE STUDENTS OF SOUTHWESTERN STATE COLLEGE:

Our task is completed, and we present to you the 1953 edition of THE BULLDOG. Certainly, it has no claim to perfection, but it is our sincere hope that it will meet with your expectations.

Your Yearbook is the result of much labor on our part, work which we willingly contributed. This edition of THE BULLDOG is a delineation and depiction of life on the Southwestern campus during the 1952-1953 term. Time will enhance its value to you. In the future, to thumb through the pages of this book will enable you to recall many fond recollections and to relive the happy days of your college life.

We owe a debt of gratitude to our advertisers and to innumerable other people who made our undertaking possible. To all of you, may we say, Thank you.

VONDEAN OGDEN, Editor

Sincerely,

Miss Vondean Ogden
Editor, 1953 Bulldog
Southwestern State College
Weatherford, Oklahoma

Dear Vondean:

Congratulations to the staff and sponsors of this fine yearbook! You have done a good job. I am sure that you are doing great planning, even at this early date, for a really unique copy of The Bulldog to be issued next year in celebration of the 50th anniversary of Southwestern State College.

I hope that the students, faculty, and administration will join hands in making the year 1953-54 the greatest of all—especially, we should all work for the largest enrollment Southwestern has ever had. A larger enrollment will bring many desirable additions to our campus.

Sincerely yours,

[Signature]

FOOTBALL

The inexperienced Bulldog football squad, composed of more than half freshmen, finished the 1952 season with a 3-6 won-lost record. Playing for the first time under new head coach Joe B. Metcalf and assistant Bill Parsons, the youngsters showed promise of future greatness.

After a slow start, in which the Bulldogs scored only two touchdowns in three games, they suddenly found their scoring punch in time to spoil the Northwestern homecoming, 21-14.

The 1952 Bulldogs played the greatest homecoming game in Southwestern’s history here on October 18, when they staged a brilliant last-half comeback to wallop their traditional rivals, the Central Bronches, 32-28.

Southwestern bowed out of the conference race by losing to Southeastern, 7-6, and Northeastern 27-7. In the final game of the season, they pounded Bethel college of Kansas, 53-12.

Southwestern landed three men on the all-conference first eleven. They were senior quarterback Jim McKoy, junior end Bill Davis, and sophomore tackle Truman Smith. McKoy was the only unanimous choice on the squad. He was also the lone member who was named for three consecutive years.

Six other Bulldogs received honorable mention for the all-conference team. They were Dale Bryant, Lloyd Carlisle, Orval Bowman, Gerald Daugherty, Don Stutters and Donnie McDonald.
At the end of the season, Coach Metcalf awarded 28 letters. Fourteen freshmen, five sophomores, six juniors and three seniors qualified for the honor.

Freshmen lettermen were Jakie Beaty, Wendell Whitman, Donny McDonald, Charles Evans, Charles Wheeler, Lloyd Carlisle, Geron Meeks, Eddie Hunt, Bob Gilbert, Willard Hartpence, Clifford Prock, Dennis Fine, Don Shadid and Kenneth Schmidt.

Sophomores were Dale Bryant, Orval Bowman, Truman Smith, Tommy Obenhaus and Dean Copeland.

The six juniors were Don Stutters, Bill Davis, Bill Eskew, LeRoy Hipkins, Gerald Daugherty, and Don Simmons.

Jim McKay, George Dickey and Steve Stroud were seniors.

KINDERGARTEN

Resting time has come for the children...

Life at home is dramatized in the doll corner.

"My little thumbs keep moving" - a singing game which requires cooperation and attention.

Group play provides many opportunities for learning to work with others.

There is time for experimentation with simple musical instruments.

Beautiful books are available at all times in the "library corner" where children are encouraged to spend a few minutes during the busy morning.

Body skills are developed on the popular acting bars.

Painting is serious occupation for these young artists.

Mid-morning lunch of milk and cracker give extra energy needed by active preschoolers.
