Great weather, activities mark Homecoming

Large crowds attended many of the Homecoming activities and winners of the various competitions at the October 11 celebration have been announced.

Alfa Abame of Stillwater and Marcus Burk of Amarillo (TX) were crowned Homecoming Queen and King during halftime of the SWOSU football game. Abame was sponsored by the Parks & Recreation Hall/Residence Life. And, as a new event this year called Banks of the Bulldogs, the overall winner was Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternity. SWOSU student organizations spent the week raising money for charities by participating in various activities. The final competitive event of the week was Duke's Dance Off, which was won by Phi Delta Theta fraternity in the high school competition for the fourth straight year. Eta Iota Sigma/Fellowship of Christian Relations/Marketing Office in Administration also won second place and $800, while Phi Delta Theta won third and $500. The prize money was sponsored by the SWOSU Student Government Association and several Weatherford financial institutions. In the marching band contest, Oklahoma High School was named the outstanding band in the high school competition for the fourth straight year and won $250 from the SWOSU Student Government Association. The parade featured 22 bands this year. After the parade, the, 1,200 plus high school students participated in a mass band at Milam Stadium before the SWOSU football game. The SWOSU Department of Education won the staff/faculty contest with its office display. Ten students have opportunities to take classes out of country

Southwestern shares multiple partnership agreements with universities and colleges overseas.

Southwestern partners with eight schools overseas, Al-Hab' Applied University in Amman, Jordan with a total enrollment of 4,500 students; Dong-A University in Busan, Korea which enrolls 20,000; Jadara University in Irbid, Jordan enrolling 13,000 students; Beijing Normal University in Beijing, China enrolling 8,000 students and Guizhou University in Guiyang, China enrolling 10,000 students.

Southwestern’s International Exchange Program provides unique opportunities for students and faculty at both SWOSU and universities abroad. Southwestern has had a successful go thus far with international affairs, with foreign and domestic students traveling overseas and receiving an education. In 2010 four transcript-seeking students from Taipei Municipal University of Education (TMUE), our sister university, joined Southwestern.

The number one thing that we want to do is keep the trip affordable,” said Alyea.

He suggested that students who don’t want the trip to come on their own, making sure students are confident traveling on their own,” said Alyea.

Honeylark to perform on NPR show

A band featuring alumni and current students of Southwestern Oklahoma State University will be featured this Saturday, October 25, on a live National Public Radio broadcast of Michael Feldman’s “Whad’ya Know!”

Honeylark, featuring sticky sweet alt-country sounds, will be featured on the program, which will air from the Visual & Performing Arts Center on the campus of Oklahoma City Community College at 10 a.m. Tickets range from $25 to $45 and can be purchased online at www.notmuch.com.

Honeylark members and their affiliation with SWOSU are: Ryan Houck, Master of Music; Natalie Houck, Pre-Medical; Caleb Creed, Bachelor of Music and Master of Science in computer science; former music students Justin Rankin and Woody Tarkington; and current student Kenny Holloway.

The “Whad’ya Know?” program features Feldman who entertains and amuses the live studio audience and quizzes lucky contestants vying for prizes during the show.

Since it is a live performance, patrons are requested to be in their seats by 9:30 a.m. Saturday so the program can begin promptly at 10 a.m.

Restaurant Review

The Asian restaurant Banana Island which is one of the most famous restaurants in Oklahoma City and every SWOSU student should try. The restaurant’s main menu consists of vegetables, fruits, lean meats, eggs, yogurt and whole grain bread and paste.

My friend Hyemin Kim said “I like this restaurant. The noodle that I ordered included many kinds of seafood and vegetable. The color of the soup is red, and I chose level 4. It is really spicy but since I really love spicy food, it is fine. The noodle was very chewy and soft. Also, the dumpling soup was very good.”

The Lady Bulldogs picked third in GAC poll

RUSSELLVILLE, Ark. – The Lady Bulldog basketball team has finished with at least a share of second place in double-digit comeback win over the fourth in the projections with 38 points each while Southwestern Oklahoma State was tagged as the team’s third-leading scorer. Battisti added a talented, nine-man recruiting class to his squad that includes an Army college transfer. East Central is picked fourth in the poll with 70 points, five ahead of Henderson State in fifth place. Southern Nazarene and Oklahoma Baptist were close enough at seventh and sixth by one point before North Alabama was seventh, and Arkansas-Monticello rounded out the poll with 63 points.

The Lady Bulldogs will play at Oklahoma Baptist on Wednesday at the home of Mid-America Christian on November 14 in exhibition action before opening the regular season against Adams State on November 20 at 3:30 pm from the Pioneer Cellular Event Center.

Tanner Thompson made a team-best 12 tackles for the Bulldogs with Tyler Folks finishing with nine and 3-1/2 tackles for loss. Conner Bays, making his first start of the season, intercepted two passes and had 3-1/2 return yards, including the first touchdown of his SWOSU career, to go along with eight tackles.

The loss is the fourth-straight for Southwest Oklahoma State after they started the year 2-1. The Bulldogs (2-5, 2-5 GAC) are back in the win column for the first time since the season opener.

Can’t Be Missed Events
Let’s Play ... JEOPARDY!
By: Garret Chambless

Are you a master of all things trivia? Do you often answer statements with “what is...” and then provide an answer? Then SWOSU Jeopardy is the game for you! Come to Neff Hall on Oct. 27 to get your trivia on. SWOSU Jeopardy begins at 7:30 p.m. in the lobby of Neff Hall and it is expected to be quite competitive. If you know who played Daisy in the film Benjamin Button or when the Eiffel Tower was built, come show us your skills with a buzzer. The event is open to all students. Come out and support ResLife at this fun event!

Pictures of the RES LIFE

Al Fossen
Hometown: Burns Flat
Classification: Freshman
Residence Hall: Rogers Hall
Major: Parks and Wildlife Law Enforcement

Meet Al Fossen. He enjoys playing video games, target shooting at the range, and pulling some sick magic tricks. You might not know this, but he is extremely great at solving personal matters and is very fun to talk to. He plans to become one of our nation’s finest Law Enforcement Officers, and his life motto is “Do or do not. There is no try.” Stop by Rogers and Jefferson and come meet Al Fossen!

Briana Duquette
Hometown: Altus, OK
Classification: Sophomore
Major: Athletic Training
Residence Hall: Oklahoma Hall

This is Briana Duquette, SWOSU’s new RA of the Month! Briana is a sophomore majoring in athletic training over at Oklahoma Hall! Her favorite sports are basketball and shot put. When not at the desk you can find her painting or going to SWOSU sporting events. Some fun facts about Briana are that her favorite artist is Iggy Azalea and her favorite candy is starbursts. What she misses most about being a kid is teleporting from the couch to the bed and later realizing that her parents had carried her to her bed. Her favorite memory about SWOSU is the time she was stuck in the elevator freshman year at Oklahoma Hall. Her life motto is “If you feel you are at your worst, you can only get better.” Come meet Briana at Oklahoma Hall because she is single and ready to mingle!

“Time”

There are twenty-four hours in a day, with sixty minutes to an hour and sixty seconds to a minute. This isn’t news to anyone reading this. With this old knowledge, we often find ourselves saying this phrase “If only I had more time.” If we were to be truly honest with ourselves we would more than likely realize that we have the same amount of time that Isaac Newton had. The same amount of time that we have today is the same amount that Ludwig van Beethoven had when composing the No. 5 Symphony in C minor. So what does this mean? This means that you have twenty-four hours every single day. Go out and do something great and worthy of being written down.
