

Local Photographer to Have Book Signing at SWOSU-Sayre

01.07.2009

Southwestern Oklahoma State University at Sayre will host a book signing for local well-known photographer Sam Hagen on Friday, January 16, at 9 a.m. in the O.H. McMahan Library, located in Mackey Hall on the SWOSU-Sayre campus.

Hagen, from Erick, will sign copies of his new book of photography, The Master's Light. Everyone is invited, and admission is free. Librarians will serve refreshments while Hagen signs copies of his book.

Later at 10 a.m., Hagen will speak to Terry Ford's Publications II and News Gathering/Reporting classes about careers in photography as well as tips for taking good pictures. Attendees are welcome to stay for Hagen's address to the classes.

For more information, contact SWOSU-Sayre librarian April Howenstine at 580.928.5533.