Oklahoma Research Day Coming to SWOSU

Southwestern Oklahoma State University will host Oklahoma's premier undergraduate research fair in 2019.

The 20th annual Oklahoma Research Day will be held Friday, March 8, on the Weatherford campus, and organizers are expecting nearly 1,000 students and faculty from universities and colleges around the state to attend.

Events will be held in the Pioneer Cellular Event Center and Wellness Center, both on the SWOSU campus.

Dr. Lori Gwyn, director of the SWOSU Office of Sponsored Programs, said the event allows students to present original research and scholarly works to their peers and community.

"SWOSU is pleased to host this big event both in 2019 and 2020," Gwyn said. "This is the first time for the event to be held on our campus, so naturally we want it to be an enjoyable day for all the students and faculty who will be coming to SWOSU."

Additional information about the research day is available at OklahomaResearchDay.com. Gwyn said volunteers are needed to help with the event, and anyone wanting to help with the March 8 event can contact her at 580.774.7012.
