PROGRAM SPOTLIGHT

Southwestern Oklahoma State University Violence Prevention Project (RUSO-VPP)

Ms. Wendy Henson is the Project Director for the Southwestern Oklahoma State University Violence Prevention Project.

This project is part of the flagship project through the Regional University System of Oklahoma Violence Prevention Project (RUSO-VPP) from the Office of Violence Against Women grants to reduce domestic violence, stalking, or sexual assault on campuses throughout Oklahoma. The Principal Investigator of the grant for SWOSU is Dr. Cynthia Foust.

The goal of the project and Ms. Wendy Henson is to effectively minimize the incidence of interpersonal violence in the campus community by strengthening collaboration between partners on and off campus, educating all incoming students, promoting awareness throughout the campus community and training key employees on campus about signs of violence and how to respond effectively to ensure that survivors have access to services.

Ms. Henson held four training sessions in January for local law enforcement, SWOSU employees, and students for a total of over 75 people.

Applications Now Being Accepted**

Application Deadline: Friday, March 11, 2011

Application is Online Only

Format is Poster or Podium

This year's Fair is being held during National Undergraduate Research Week. Also new this year, SWOSU faculty, staff, and administration are invited to showcase their work alongside the students. This will be an excellent opportunity for newer SWOSU faculty, staff, or administrators to recruit students for summer projects and beyond. This will also be an excellent opportunity for the different academic units to showcase their research and scholarly activity efforts. If you have students involved in research or other scholarly activity, please encourage them to participate. The application may be accessed via the Sponsored Programs webpage at <http://www.swosu.edu/administration/osp/fair/index.asp>.

Please read and follow instructions carefully. Upon completion of the application you should receive a notice indicating that it has been sent. If you have difficulty, contact Dr. Jason Johnson for assistance at 774-3110 or via e-mail at jason.johnson@swosu.edu.

Poster dimensions and design are posted on the webpage as well. Please review this information so that posters will fit in the space provided.

Please remember that each application must have at least one faculty, staff and/or administrative sponsor. It is the sponsor's responsibility to see that posters and podium presentations are within the boundaries of professional presentation and research/scholarly activity rigor.

If you have questions or need additional information, please contact Dr. Jason Johnson by e-mail (jason.johnson@swosu.edu) or by phone (774-3110).

PROPOSAL STATISTICS FY10 AND FY11

COMPLIANCE CORNER: THE PROTECTION OF HUMAN SUBJECTS

The Protection of Human Subjects Committee (PHSC) is SWOSU's Institutional Review Board (IRB) for any research activity involving human subjects. This board is mandated by federal law and is charged with maintaining compliance with federal regulations that apply to research involving human subjects.

The Policy and Procedures for the Protection of Human Subjects (PHS) in Research Activities document is located on the SWOSU Sponsored Programs web site under Office of Sponsored Programs / Policies and Procedures / Protection of Human Subjects or click on: <http://www.swosu.edu/administration/osp/policies.asp>. It is important to read and understand SWOSU's policy and procedures regarding human subjects.

Any research activity by faculty, staff, and students involving human subjects or use of data on human subjects including survey research, questionnaires, or any form of information-seeking documentation, even if it is archived data or reused data, that will be or has been conducted on or in any SWOSU campus or facilities or supported by University resources, must be reviewed and approved by the PHSC prior to beginning the research. The PHSC must keep records of all activity involving human subjects for federal auditing purposes.

Any change in the title of an approved protocol must be reported in writing to the PHSC Chair prior to the change being made or presented in a public manner. The Chair will approve and record the title change. The PHSC must keep records of all changes for federal auditing purposes.

Any changes that alter the original intent of a previously approved study will require a new Human Subjects Application to be submitted to PHSC for approval. Committee approval must be provided prior to the changes taking effect. The PHSC must keep records of all changes for federal auditing purposes.

The Application to Protection of Human Subjects Committee (IRB # HS-1) can be located on the SWOSU forms site under Grants and Research / or click on <http://www.swosu.edu/resources/forms/category/grants-research.asp>.

Please review and refer to these important university documents for applicability, definitions, exemptions, etc.

If your research protocol involves health-related participants, health records, health information, or privacy statements, please review the section of the Health Information Portability and Accountability Act regarding health-related research. A link to the Health Services Research and the HIPAA Privacy Rule Overview may be located on the SWOSU Sponsored Programs web site under Office of Sponsored Programs / Policies and Procedures / Protection of Human Subjects or click on: <http://privacyruleandresearch.nih.gov/healthservicesprivacy.asp>.

Some projects may not be subject to review by the IRB. If unsure whether a completed Application to Protection of Human Subjects Committee is needed, please submit a Protection of Human Subjects Committee Preliminary Application (IRB #HS-4). This application can be located on the SWOSU forms web site under Grants and Research or click on <http://www.swosu.edu/resources/forms/category/grants-research.asp>.

If you have questions or for additional information, contact a member of the Protection of Human Subjects Committee or call the Office of Sponsored Programs (OSP) at ext. 7012. Dr. Michael Wolff (3720) is chair of the PHSC.
