

100 Women Discussion Set January 22 at SWOSU

01.15.2016

Danielle Ezell, executive director of the Oklahoma Women's Coalition, will speak in Weatherford on Friday, January 22, and a free lunch will be provided at the American Association of University Women event.

Ezell will discuss the 100 Women discussion/debate that was held nationwide in December. In addition, Ezell will give an update regarding OWC and the upcoming legislative session priorities and any programming emphasis during the coming months.

The 12 noon luncheon in the Bonny Board Room of the Memorial Student Center on the Southwestern Oklahoma State University campus. Reservations for the lunch are needed by January 19. Contact Faye Henson at epita@cebridge.net. The lunch will consist of three types of pizza (including a veggie option), tea & water, and cookies/brownies.

Before taking the position at OWC, Ezell was vice president of administration at Teleflora, where she led the human resources and technology marketing teams. She also owned 20 Hats, an award-winning marketing and public relations firm.

For additional information, contact AAUW President Lori Gwyn at lori.gwyn@swosu.edu or call 580.774.3744.