

Theta Alpha Omega Frat Wins SWOSU Blood Drive Competition

01.14.2011

Theta Alpha Omega fraternity won the friendly Greek competition at the recent Oklahoma Blood Institute blood drive held at Southwestern Oklahoma State University in Weatherford.

TAO's participating percentage was 309%, which means the frat brothers got three times the amount of their membership to participate in the blood drive. Finishing second with 145% was Kappa Delta Omega sorority, while Zeta Phi sorority finished third at 100%. Four other Greek groups participated in the blood drive.

The next blood drive on the SWOSU campus is February 7-8 at the Wellness Center. The drive is sponsored by Residence Life. The drive is 11 a.m. until 4 p.m. both days, and everyone is invited.
