01.14.2008

The Collegiate Activities Board is giving away an iPod at SWOSU's basketball games this Wednesday, January 16, on the Weatherford campus.

Alta Benner, co-director of CAB, said the group decided to give away the iPod as part of the celebration in renaming the Rankin Williams Fieldhouse court to "Kelli Litsch Court." Litsch will be honored between the women's and men's basketball games at approximately 7:30 p.m.

Benner said the iPod will be given away at halftime of the men's game. SWOSU students in their Bulldawg Nation and Rankin Rowdies t-shirts at the women's game at 6 p.m. will get two chance tickets and one additional chance ticket will be given for attending the men's game at 8 p.m., according to Benner, a sophomore pre-pharmacy major from Katy, Texas.

SWOSU's basketball teams are playing East Central on Wednesday.
