DA VINCI SCHOLAR NOMINEE
2005

The Da Vinci Foundation is an historic educational partnership whose goal is to impact the arts, sciences, humanities and education in Oklahoma through increased partnerships, programming and public awareness. It is the vision of the Da Vinci Institute to provide programs that encourage critical thinking and creativity and promote partnerships and collaborations with other organizations that will further these programs.

Each year a committee selects a winner(s) of the Da Vinci Scholar’s award in P-12 teaching. The selected educator will receive a $1000 stipend and a Da Vinci Scholar Plaque designed specifically for this award. The P-12 school district and the graduating institution of higher education will receive a copy of the plaque. Da Vinci Scholars will be recognized at the annual Spring Da Vinci Banquet.

Basic Criteria: The nominee must be a graduate of an Oklahoma institution of higher education and currently employed as a teacher in an Oklahoma public or private P-12 school.

A Da Vinci Scholar is a teacher with one to three years of teaching experience who exhibits an interdisciplinary approach in his/her teaching which inspires creativity in students as evidenced in a demonstrable way, in other words translates knowledge into a product. A Da Vinci Scholar collaborates with peers and parents, understands and modifies lessons which address the multiple intelligences and learning styles of his/her students and knows that learning is not static but is an ongoing process as exhibited in their own on-going education.

Creativity is not limited to the fine arts. The experiences of creative people are very similar even though they may excel in widely different content areas such as mathematics, social studies, music, visual art, English, foreign languages.

Anyone is eligible to make nominations for these awards.
