

Sign-up Starts for Battle of the Genders at SWOSU

01.27.2006

The Battle of the Genders will take place February 6, 7 and 9 on the campus of Southwestern Oklahoma State University in Weatherford with four students winning trips to Cancun.

Teams of four (all men or all women) will compete during three evenings of competition, sponsored by the Collegiate Activities Board. The teams can be comprised of SWOSU students, faculty and staff members.

Entry deadline is February 2 at 4 p.m. Registration forms are available in Stafford Center 214.

SWOSU Dean of Students Cindy Dougherty said the competition will be major fun. Starting time each evening will be 5 p.m. in the Wellness Center.

On February 6, teams will compete in word scramble and problem solving competitions. There will be frozen turkey bowling and gender trivia on February 7. The competition will conclude on February 9 with obstacle course races involving a food buffet, football drills, tired wood, 5-legged race and balancing act.

Additional information is available by contacting CAB at 580.774.7153 or cab@swosu.edu.