

Peking Acrobats Moved to Thursday Night

01.21.2011

Hailing from the People's Republic of China, The Peking Acrobats have for decades been diplomats of their spirited culture and on Thursday, February 3, The Peking Acrobats will share some of that culture in a performance at Southwestern Oklahoma State University in Weatherford.

This gala 25th Silver Anniversary North American Tour stop in Weatherford is part of the Panorama series at SWOSU and will begin at 7:30 p.m. in the Fine Arts Center.

Advance tickets for the event are $10 for individuals with an SWOSU I.D. card and $15 for others. All tickets at the door will be $20.

Tickets are available at the SWOSU Public Relations & Marketing Office, Room 205 of the Administration Building; the SWOSU Business Office, Room 109 of the Administration Building; SWOSU Sayre campus Business Office; and the Weatherford Daily News office. Tickets can also be purchased with a credit card by calling 580.774.3019.

The Peking Acrobats-a troupe of China's most gifted tumblers, contortionists, jugglers, cyclists and gymnasts-leave audiences spellbound by the graceful presentation of their acrobatics.

The group has appeared on numerous television shows and on the silver screen in all films in the Ocean's Eleven franchise.

Panorama Committee Chair Brian Adler said the performance should be an outstanding show and enjoyable for all ages.

SWOSU's Panorama series has been bringing outstanding events to the Weatherford campus since 1991. Panorama is partially supported by an endowed lectureship sponsored by SBC.

Additional information about the Panorama series is available by calling the SWOSU Public Relations & Marketing Office at 580.774.3063.
