

BSA Plans Black History Month Dinner at SWOSU

01.16.2014

Southwestern Oklahoma State University's Black Student Association will host its annual Black History Month Soul Food Dinner on Wednesday, February 5, at 6 p.m. in the Memorial Student Center Ballroom on the Weatherford campus.

Tickets are on sale for $7 and can be purchased from any BSA member or in Room 243 of the Stafford Center. Everyone is invited.

The dinner features a menu of fried chicken, fried catfish, macaroni and cheese, collard greens, corn bread, sweet potatoes, mashed potatoes and fried okra. Following the dinner, entertainment for the evening includes a "Welcome to Afrika" fashion show. BSA members will showcase the clothing worn in African countries.
