

Cheyenne Art Exhibition and Workshops Planned at SWOSU

01.26.2017

A Cheyenne Art Exhibition and workshops/special lectures are planned February 3-4 at Southwestern Oklahoma State University in Weatherford.

Events will be held both days in the Al Harris Library.

Admission to the exhibition/workshops/lectures is free, but reservations are recommended due to limited seating.

Featured artwork is by Greg Lee Heart and George Levi. There will be special lectures by the artists and three three-hour workshops— ledger art, parfleche making, and beadwork—held during the event. The activities are supported by the Oklahoma Arts Council.

For more information, or to register, contact Dr. Siriporn Peters at 580.774.3756 or siriporn.peters@swosu.edu or Kevin R. Bowles Mohr at the Washita Battlefield National Historic Site at 580.497.2742 x 3003.