

Rodriguez Receives AAUW Scholarship

01.14.2013

Southwestern Oklahoma State University student Ashley Rodriguez (right) of Clinton has been named the recipient of a $300 Nancy McClain Honorary Scholarship from the American Association of University Women (AAUW) chapter in Weatherford. Making the presentation were AAUW members (from left) Dr. Lisa Appeddu, Dr. Lori Gwyn, Dr. Valerie Reimers and Darla Davenport.

Southwestern Oklahoma State University student Ashley Rodriguez of Clinton has been named the recipient of a $300 Nancy McClain Honorary Scholarship from the American Association of University Women (AAUW) chapter in Weatherford.

Rodriguez is a senior biology student currently participating in research in the neuroscience lab under the supervision of Dr. Andrea Holgado. She plans to attend graduate school or medical school upon graduation and continue on to work in the fields of neurology and epilepsy.

Rodriguez is a first generation high school graduate and college student. Along with her husband, she raises two young daughters. She is also involved in the community, coordinating soccer referees for the Clinton Soccer Club, volunteering at the Weatherford Agape Clinic and participating in her daughters' school events.