DEDICATION

To the pioneer teacher whose unfaltering purpose has been a bulwark to the republic, we the staff of the 1927 Oracle respectfully dedicate this book.

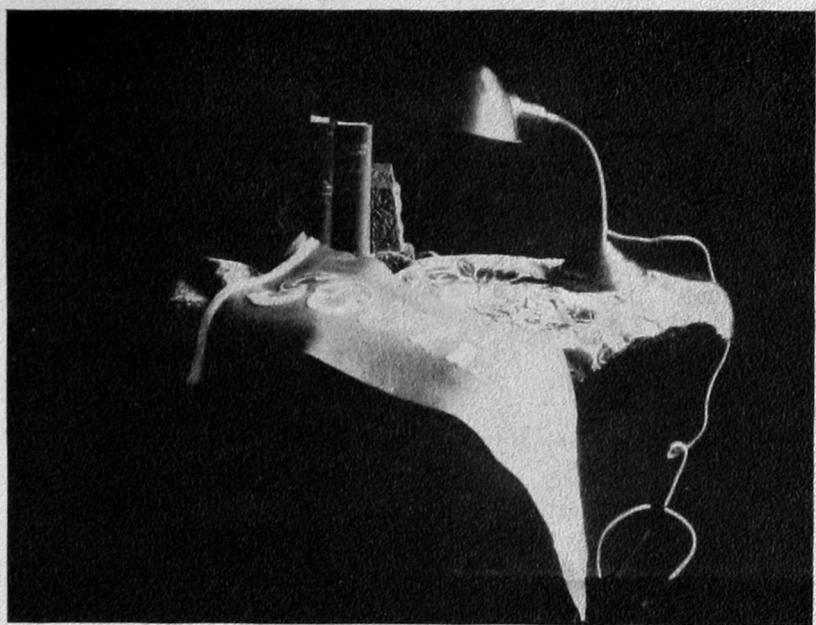

FOREWORD

If out of the pages of this book march the memories of the romances, the friendships formed, the athletic victories, the little things of big importance, then the purpose of this volume has been fulfilled.

Old Books For New

Through the streets and bazaars
Of a far Eastern city
There went one day a Moor
Bearing in a basket
A glittering array of lamps.
And as he walked he cried:
"Oh, who will give Old lamps for new?"
And all the world followed him
And the street boys pursued him
From place to place,
And mocked at him.
But he cared not for that,
For when he reached
The palace of Ala-ed Din
He gained the prize he sought,
The Magical Lamp of the Treasure,
In exchange for his tawdry wares.

And so today
In Western lands
Great thoughts out of the past
Woven from the magic of men's minds
Are bartered or are cast aside
Whenever we are asked to give
Old books for new.

"Swede" is one of the best guards in the history of Southwestern. As a captain he worked hard, trained consistently and maintained the confidence of his mates. His fast, furious charging and clean sportsmanship featured every game. He is lost by graduation.

ARNOLD SHOCKLEY, Captain-elect

"Shock" was without doubt the fastest charging tackle in the conference. He has one more year with the Bulldogs and expects to make it his best. He was unanimously chosen to captain the team for 1927 and in so doing his team mates expressed their appreciation of his fine qualities. Shockley was chosen tackle on the second all state team.

BULLDOG-LONGHORN STRUGGLE AT AUSTIN

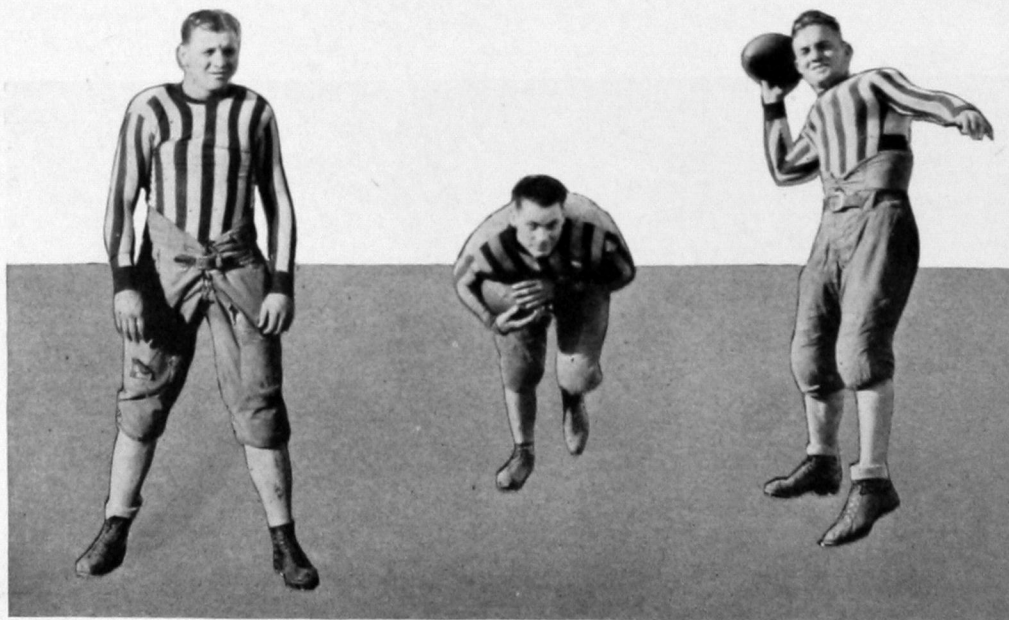

forty-nine

Simmons is one of the greatest backs the state has ever produced. His speed, weight and determination earned for him an all state berth for the second time. He has played his last game for Southwestern.

Jake is another back who has starred for four seasons. A game, heady, line-smashing player such as he is, should have received all state recognition. Critics say of him, "the best defensive back in Oklahoma."

Jimmie's ability to call the right play at the right time and his play at defensive fullback were big factors in the Bulldog's success. He is also the ranking passer of the conference. He has completed his fourth year.

SIMMONS, Halfback

SPANN, Halfback

CRADDOCK, Quarterback

fifty

"Big Jack" at tackle was the greatest lineman in the conference. Big, fast and rangy he was a terror to all opposing backs. His brilliant play won him an all state berth. He has one more year.

Cooke, at end, was an exceptional wingman. His fast charging, deadly tackling and all round efficiency made him an all state berth for the second year. Bill has another year of competition.

Kellar is not a flashy player but one who can always be depended upon to pass the ball accurately from center, and take care of his territory on defense. A big, rangy fellow whose middle name is "Consistent".

JACKSON, Tackle

COOKE, End

KELLAR, Center

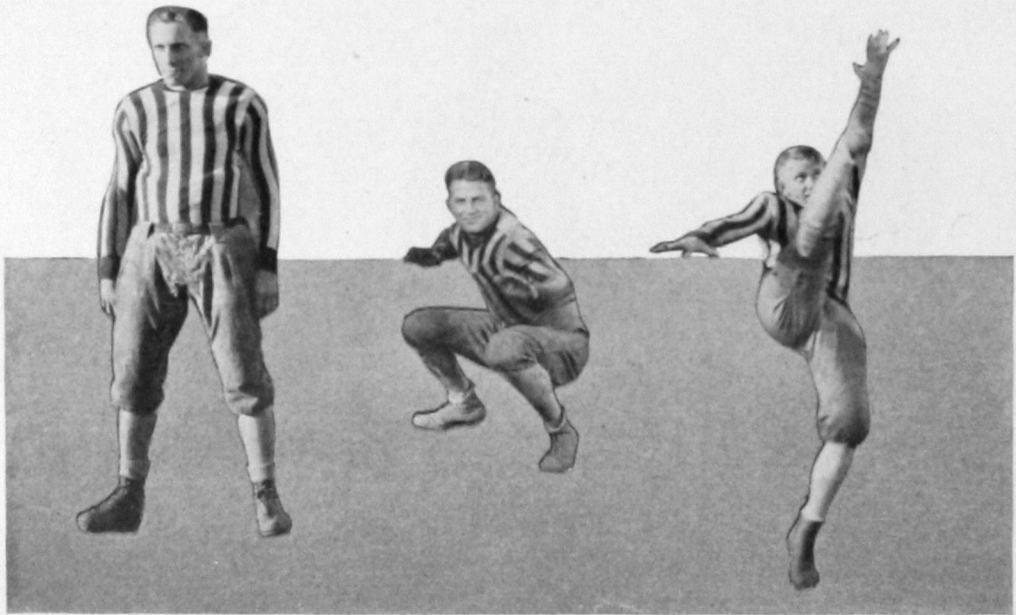

fifty-one

Reynold's play at end featured every game of the season. He is the hardest tackler on the squad, a good receiver of passes and a fighter. He has two more years in which to star for Southwestern.

Groves is one of those players whose greatest asset is his "fight". Although smaller than most of his opponents, he was ever a tower of strength on defense and offense alike.

As a kicker, Duncan was among the leaders of the conference. He receives passes well and takes care of the safety duties in an excellent manner.

REYNOLDS, End

GROVES, Guard

DUNCAN, Fullback

THE ORACLE

Conrad is the champion "pinch hitter" of the squad. He possesses an educated toe that spells ruin to opponents. A fast, tough, game player whose future bids fair to be brilliant.

Kaiser, playing his first year at center, was an uncanny defensive player. He also snapped the ball back from the pivot position with speed and accuracy.

Bo is a line plunger that can always be depended upon to get yards. As well as being a consistent ball lugger he is a fierce tackler and meets 'em at the line.

CONRAD, Halfback

KAISER, Center

BELCHER, Fullback

fifty-three

"Frog" is an experienced player who always moved his man. He is a good tackler and receiver of passes and possesses a world of "fight".

Alvis was one of the hardest workers and trainers on the squad. He is big and fast and no doubt will be one of the mainstays of the line in the future.

Brady is another fast end who could block, tackle and catch passes with a rare degree of skill. Although he has played only one year he is lost by graduation.

WRIGHT, End

ALVIS, Guard

BRADY, End

THE ORACLE

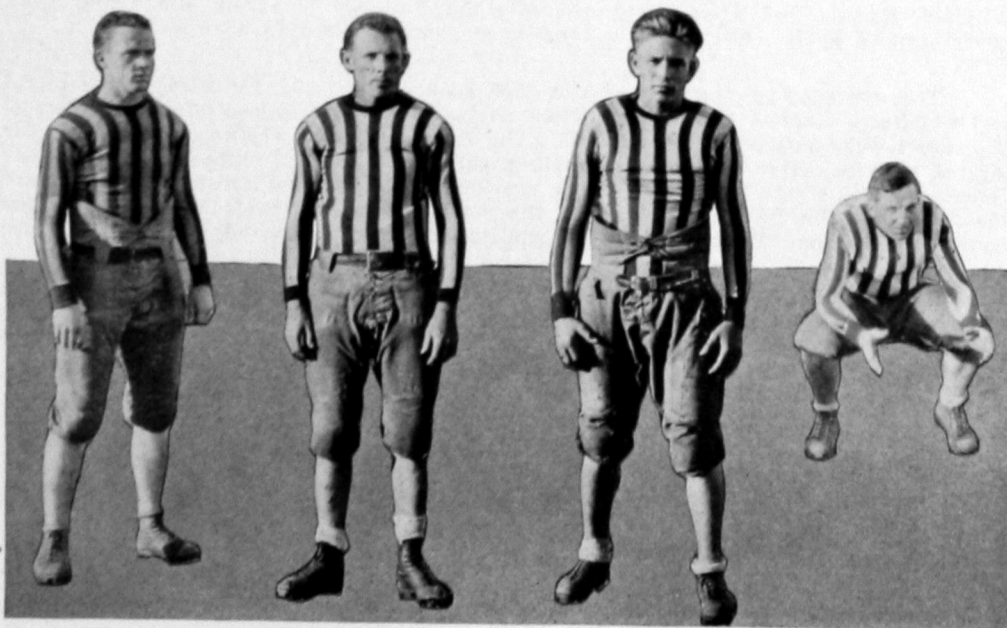

"Sparky" at halfback, was always good for a gain. He is fast and shifty and a good line plunger.

Wonder is a cool, calculating player who also possesses speed and gameness. He will probably pilot the Bulldogs to victories in the future.

Byler is little but mighty. What he lacks in size he makes up for with fight and aggressiveness. He is a smart lineman and a deadly tackler.

"Brute" is big and powerful with a line plunging ability that will make him a terror in the three years that he has left.

1926 Football Season

At the time this section of the Oracle was started the Bulldogs were undisputed football champions of the Oklahoma Collegiate conference, but as the book goes to press they have been dethroned by the powers that are. It is indeed regrettable that such a glorious season had to end with a perfectly legitimate ineligibility charge, but be that as it may they cannot rob us of our glory.

Some parts of this section may not meet the approval of all but inasmuch as at the present time there is no recognized football champion of the conference, the editor of this book feels justified in printing the record as it is.

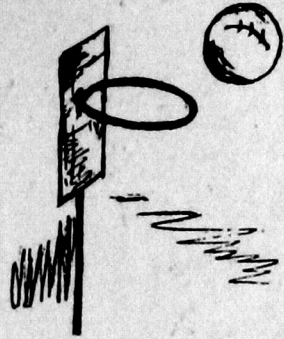

Without doubt the 1926 Bulldog football team was the most powerful aggregation that has ever represented Southwestern on the gridiron. It was a team composed of veterans; a well balanced, hard fighting, heady crew that was equally strong on offense and defense.

Two early season games were lost to Texas University and Southwestern of Winfield, Kansas, but after these reversals the Bulldogs hit their stride and were never stopped again. Every single conference game resulted in a victory.

The outstanding features of the 1926 season were the victories over Central and Oklahoma Baptist University. After twelve years of fruitless effort the Central Bronchoes were downed 6.3 at Edmond. The Baptist victory was especially sweet for several reasons. First it was the deciding game of the conference race; they had defeated Southwestern for three years previous and last and most important was the fact that the Bulldogs proved to the world that they could win without the services of Herman Duncan, whose eligibility had been protested.

As further proof of the Bulldogs' superiority, almost every member of Joe Milam's pennant winning crew received votes for the all state team. Three men were placed on the first team; Simmons at halfback, Jackson at tackle, and Cooke at end. Umbach and Shockley were given berths on the second team.

Of the twenty men who were awarded letters only five will not be back to answer the call next year. Simmons, Spann and Craddock, who have composed the major portion of the Bulldog backfield for the past four years, are lost by graduation. Captain "Swede" Umbach, star for three seasons, will also be claimed by graduation, as will Edgar Brady, end.

This was "Mutt's" last year on the Bulldog quintet. He was undoubtedly the uncanniest passer in the state and was a dangerous man with the ball from any position on the court. His goal tossing from mid-court was a feature of many conference frays.

"Doc" McGAVOCK, Captain-elect

"Doc" was chosen to lead the Bulldogs through their next campaign by a unanimous vote. His rangy back-guarding knocked down many shots that might have proved disastrous to the Bulldogs in their Titular Campaign. "Doc" was a good shot from the center of the court and always slipped in a few baskets during the game.

1927 BASKETBALL SEASON

A team of veterans represented Southwestern on the court this year and they proved their superiority to any other team in the conference by finishing an undefeated season. Ten conference games were played without a reversal. When the roll is called next year, three members of this championship team will be missing. Herring and Simmons have completed their fourth year and Montgomery will graduate after three seasons of stardom.

Individually the 1927 Bulldogs were powerful as well as a team.

SIMMONS

Guard

Jinks was the fastest man on the squad and could pass, dribble and shoot with skill. He directed the team play and was awarded the captaincy of the all state team for his general efficiency in all departments. It was the third time for him to make all state.

HOLT

Forward

"Lefty" was the only freshman on the regular five. He is a hustler and is a sure shot from under the basket. He has a bright future before him.

MONTGOMERY

Forward

"Pete" was the scoring ace of the club. He did not jump center but played the center of the court after the tip-off. He is fast, elusive, a good shot and passer. He was named all state forward for the third consecutive year.

OGDEN

Guard

"Red" is a big fighter who gives his best at all times. He was handicapped by injuries this year but he has two more left.

IGO

Forward

Igo broke into the game late in the season but showed that he had the stuff. He saved the day against Sterling Milk.

DAVIS

Guard

Davis did not hit his stride until late but he always gave a good account of himself. He has three more years.

GOWDY

Forward

John is a clever passer and a good shot. He pivots well and surely has a future.

Captain Chester Alvis, twice state champion at 175 pounds, is a smart, aggressive, hardworking wrestler who can be depended upon at all times. He made an ideal leader.

Elmer Cecil, a senior, finished his career in fine shape when he was crowned king of the 115 pounders at the state tournament. His place will be hard to fill next year.

Arnold Umbach is probably the most versatile grappler ever produced at Southwestern. "Swede" won the championship for the second time in the 158 pound class, and in so doing ended his athletic career in a fitting manner. He is claimed by graduation.

Roy Anderson, freshman, is the fifth state champion on the squad. "Red" wrestles at 145 pounds and was beaten only once during the past season.

Maurice Norman, in the 125 pound class, is a fighter. This was his first year on the squad and great things are expected of him.

1927 Wrestling Season

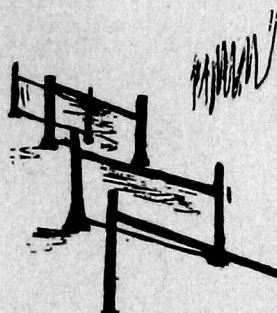

Wrestling is the third sport at which the Bulldogs reigned supreme in '27. The conference records do not show them to be champions but nevertheless five men who wore the blue and white were crowned state champions at their respective weights.

In dual meets Southwestern broke even. They first went out of their class and took on Oklahoma Aggies and were decisively beaten. In the first conference match Central was beaten. Next came Oklahoma Baptist University and they, too, were turned back. After a day spent in snow drifts enroute to Edmond the Central Bronchos defeated the Bulldogs for the only conference defeat.

Southwestern was denied the state title because of a technicality in the scoring of points. The Bulldogs won five first places out of a possible seven but Central won enough seconds and thirds to nose out ahead by two points.

Wrestling is fast gaining in popularity at Southwestern. It is predicted that it will be one of the leading sports next year. Seven men were awarded letters this year. Captain Alvis, Jackson, Captain-elect, Umbach, Groves, Anderson, Cecil and Norman are the men who earned the coveted "S".

Alvis and Umbach repeated as state champions. In addition to these Jackson, Anderson and Cecil were crowned new kings of their divisions.

Outlook For Track

Due to the fact that the Oracle goes to press before the track season is under way, it is impossible to have a record of their achievements of the 1927 season.

From the host of material and creditable manner in which they are performing in early season workouts, it is safe to say that Southwestern will be well represented on the cinders. The Bulldogs have probably the best track schedule this year of any track team in the history of Southwestern.

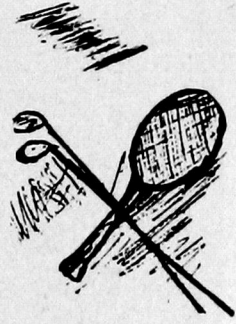

As for the team as a whole we do not boast a well balanced team as in some previous years but nevertheless there are a number of stars that are expected to carry the blue and white to victory. They are especially strong in the relays and the sprints.

Heading the list of stars is Jinks Simmons, Southwestern's greatest athlete. Simmons is a sprinter par excellent. He specializes in the 100, 220 and 440 yard dashes. He has records of 9 4.5 and 9.8 for the century. He has been a tower of strength for the past three seasons.

In addition to Simmons, Coach Williams has Reynolds, Wright, Brady, Montgomery, Hix, Kiasser and Alvis, lettermen. Two freshmen, Aiken and Anderson, are doped to carry their share of the burden. Champ Davis, sophomore, is another who will bear watching.

The Y. W. C. A. is a religious organization which seeks to promote a Christian atmosphere on the campus. It is also intended to develop the spiritual life of its members.

The Y. W. C. A. boasts of the largest membership of any organization in the school. It has over one hundred members.

“Hello” day in Southwestern, a joint banquet with the Y. M. C. A., the publication of a student directory, and the observance of World Prayer Week have become annual affairs of the Y. W. C. A.

This year the organization has accomplished many more things of interest. Among them are the sending of the Y. W. C. A. president to the National Convention of Christian associations held at Milwaukee, the Christmas pageant in chapel, and the redecoration of the Y. W. C. A. rest room.

Weatherford, Okla.

Dear alumni and fellow members:

Ten more weeks and the doors of Southwestern close to some of us forever. We are glad to complete our work but cannot help but feel a chill of sadness at our departure.

In the fall the Senators opened the season of pleasure for us with a weiner roast, followed by a line party to the Bungalow and the Varsity. Our Christmas party with the Senators brought much mirth and happiness. After the party the Senators were seen rolling little wagons and blowing tin horns received from Kris Kringle.

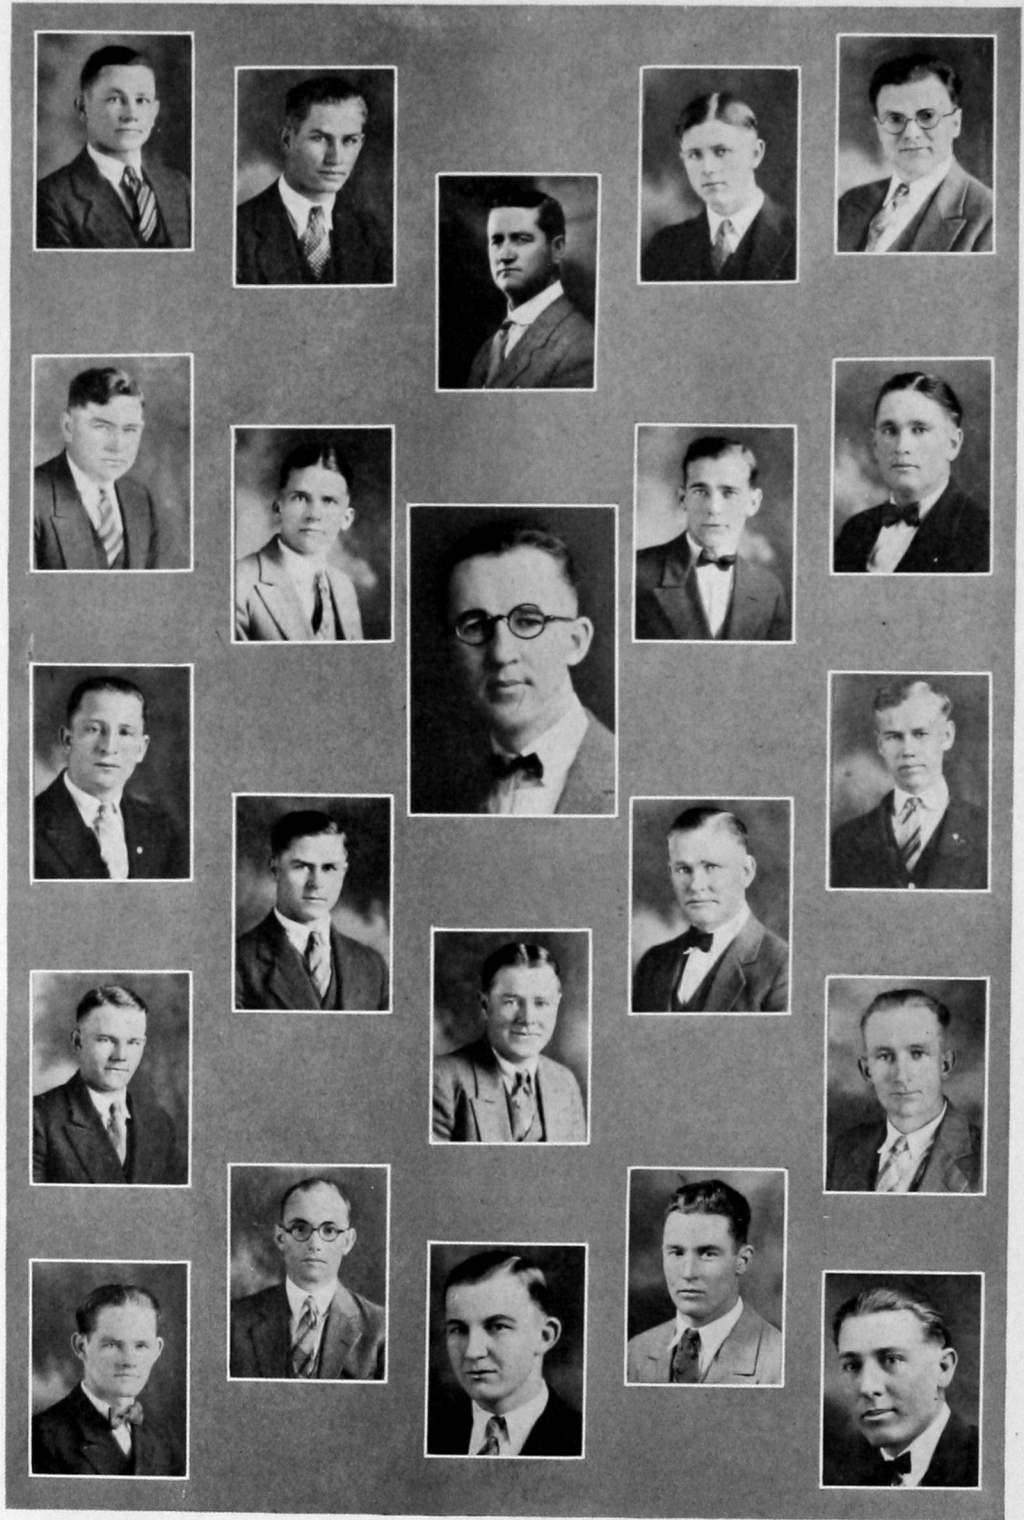

Among our parties long to be remembered is a line party given in honor of our pledges of the second semester. After the show all were taken by Miss Gee, our sponsor, to Mack and Zick's confectionary where stunts, music and "eats" completed a delightful evening. Although we are the oldest club in school, we are still young enough to enjoy many happy times.

Sincerely,

Mildred.

The Senate, Southwestern's oldest organization, is primarily a body to teach its members the art of debating. The social side is not lost sight of, however, and much enjoyment as well as instruction has been gained from the meetings.

The Senate was especially fortunate this year in securing K. B. Cornell and S. O. Henshaw as critics to advise and help the members in debate work.

We, as a Senate body, strive in every way possible to help make Southwestern grow and prosper. The Senate will ever remain in step.

The Palette and Brush Club, whose purpose is to study art for an appreciation of the finer things of life, is one of the outstanding organizations in Southwestern. The club became a member of the Federated Women's clubs in 1924, and since that time has done some worthwhile things.

At its regular meetings during the past year, the club has made a study of American art and artists. In connection with this study, Miss Kelly has given a detailed review and picture study of her trip to New York City last August, where she studied art in the Metropolitan Studio and visited many places of artistic beauty throughout the New England states.

Two benefit shows have been given this year, which has made it possible for the club-room to be furnished with a suite of furniture and a new floor lamp. In addition to several socials given during the year, the club gave an art program in chapel, consisting of reports of various American painters and a study of their pictures.

At Christmas time when a request was made to help cheer the patients in the dependent institutions of the state, the club responded by sending a gift to the Clinton Sanitarium.

Every nine weeks, or at the close of each term, a public exhibit is held in the art studio. This exhibit consists of the work done during each term in oil, water-color, pastel, china, penmanship and drawing.

The Hammacian club was organized near the end of the first semester of the 1925 and '26 school year, under the direction of Miss Myrtle Umphress, head of the home economics department, for the purpose of furnishing social life for the home economics girls and for fostering a love of home.

This year, under the supervision of Miss Edna White, the girls have served formal banquets and plan to serve two more before the beginning of the summer school.

The club meets fortnightly, having one social and one business meeting each month.

Although Hammacian lost the majority of its last year's members by graduation, it has grown into almost double last year's strength and has made itself felt on the campus as a peppy, enthusiastic organization.

The Women's Athletic association was organized in the fall of 1924. The purpose of this organization is to promote higher physical efficiency among the girls of the college and to foster an interest in gymnastics and athletics. It is a student organization of girls, who have earned at least one hundred points in some special sport. A pin is awarded to the girl earning four hundred points and to those who succeed in making one thousand points, a sweater is given.

Twenty-five girls were active members of the W. A. A. this year. Four of these have earned sweaters and three have earned both sweaters and blankets.

Sports which have been offered this year are; basketball, volley ball, tennis, base ball, hiking, track, and horseback riding.

Triangular Debate

RESOLVED: That farm legislation as advocated by the McNary-Haugen bill should be enacted by congress.

As this book went to press the debate outlook was unusually promising. The highly commendable plan of giving academic credit for debaters successfully completing a season's work is being continued at Southwestern.

Along with the debate work comes the Oklahoma Old Line, and Peace oratorical contests in which Southwestern has figured in during the past, ranking high with each year's entries.

A special invitation is extended to high school debaters to come to Southwestern and join these forensic activities.

Much credit for the development of Southwestern's standing in the forensic contests of the state is due to Mr. S. O. Hanshaw, coach. Many hours of his time and untiring effort have been devoted to work of this type. His efforts are greatly appreciated in our college.

The Women's Glee club is the oldest women's club on the campus. Its traditions are interwoven with its ideals. Briefly, the club exists for the purpose of acquainting the membership with the best in choral music and spreading the gospel of good music. The club has been very active throughout the year. Appearances have been made at the Sunday Musical Vespers and various other functions. Two concerts have been given also, one in the college auditorium, consisting of a miscellaneous program, and the other before the meeting of the Fourth District Federation of Women's clubs, at Clinton. The program of this latter concert had as its unique heading, "The History of Our Country Depicted in Music". In costumes appropriate to the time, the club portrayed in music the Indian, Revolutionary, Civil War and modern periods of American history.

Southwestern's Thirteenth Annual Tournament

The basketball lovers of Southwestern Oklahoma were given a treat this year if they witnessed Southwestern's annual tournament. It was a success from every angle. The teams that were here were as a whole the best that we have had for a number of years. The spacious Bulldog Kennel afforded ample seating and playing capacity for all.

New champions were crowned in both divisions. Weatherford high school boys defeated Altus in the final game to keep the cup in Weatherford for the first time in history. Lawton girls, who later became champions of the United States, carried off the honors in the girls division by defeating Thomas in the final game. The games throughout were fast and interesting and as a result a large crowd attended every session.

In later tournaments the teams from the southwest district proved their superiority. In the district playoffs Altus and Cloud Chief won their respective districts. Lawton and Thomas girls repeated in their districts and all entered the state tournament. Lawton and Thomas met in the semi-finals and Lawton was defeated by one point. The Thomas girls went through and won the state championship. In the boys division Altus went to the semi-finals where they were eliminated by Durant by two points. Durant then won the tournament.

This, however, did not end the show, as Thomas and Lawton girls entered the National tournament at Wichita. The girls from Lawton flashed a brand of ball that could not be stopped and they emerged champions of the United States. Thomas was not far behind and finished third in the national classic. Thus the two finalists in Southwestern's tournament proved to be the cream of America. Southwestern is justly proud of them.

September

Tuesday 7—Enrollment is in full swing. Freshmen are seen behind every tree on the campus.

Wednesday 8—The dignified seniors take formal possession of the college.

Thursday 9—Classes meet for first time in order to get acquainted with the instructors. Several additions are discovered.

Friday 10—Football men of both high school and college are guests of honor at the Chamber of Commerce banquet.

Saturday 11—The first holiday of the year is welcome to zealous sophs who have studied more in the past two days than they did all last year.

Monday 13—More students come in from the cross roads to add prestige to our Alma Mater.

Tuesday 14—Sixty-five girls take Y pledge.

Wednesday 15—Classes organize today. Cliff Jones leads lordly seniors; Arnold Shockley refuses to be responsible for the sophomores but they protest his resignation.

Thursday 16—Bulldogs scrimmage. Duke and Jerry engage in bloody combat in front of Administration building. Referee Krumtum declared the fight to be a draw.

Friday 17—Football practice gets rough. From the amount of sand they kick up it looks as if they might deal plenty of misery.

Saturday 18—Tubby Parnell is recognized as the biggest man on the campus and is immediately hired by Harris Hardware Co.

Monday 20—Mary Catherine Rankin makes her appearance and the fate of Everett Grounds becomes apparent.

Tuesday 21—Lattie Boyd speaks in chapel on the subject of "Importance of Y. W." "Hello Everybody".

Wednesday 22—Freshmen show signs of loneliness.

Thursday 23—Lois Minick of Cloud Chief is elected Southwestern's candidate for "Miss Oklahoma".

Friday 24—Miss Crabtree receives grand rush. Thirty-nine report for tryouts in dramatics.

Saturday 25—Bulldogs lose to Texas University by score of 31-7. Team shows plenty of stuff even in defeat.

Monday 27—Shirley Brintle returns from long jaunt in Greer county. He reports a good time by all.

Tuesday 28—President Turner tells students Southwestern has no code of "thou shalts" and "thou shalt not's".

Wednesday 29—Miss Crabtree's students become frightened at Indian legends that are related in mythology class.

Thursday 30—Jinks Simmons loses nine pounds at football practice.

October

- Friday 1—Mr. Myers spreads propaganda concerning buffalo hunt.
- Saturday 2—Bulldogs lose to Purple Goats of Winfield, Kansas, 6 to 0 in rotten game.
- Monday 4—See E. E. Woodman for dates.
- Tuesday 5—S. O. Henshaw is optimistic about debate prospects; only one member of last year's team is back.
- Wednesday 6—Students directory is promised. We hope to get it by Christmas.
- Thursday 7—Student assembly officers are elected. Ted Burris is president.
- Friday 8—Senate and Forensia members see "Chip of the Flying U". The senators paid the bill.
- Saturday 9—Bill Cooke gets lost. He fails to get home in time to get up.
- Monday 11—Palette and Brush club meet and discuss famous pictures. Many members boast of work equally as good.
- Tuesday 12—W. A. A. girls hike twenty miles and still claim that they are not tired. We wonder.
- Wednesday 13—Charles Paddock, the world's fastest human, is here. He spends his afternoon at football practice and his evening in a very interesting lecture.
- Thursday 14—Oklahoma Christian college is defeated 28 to 0 by the Bulldogs. Jinks "struts his stuff".
- Friday 15—"Wedding Bells" to ring soon, according to Miss Crabtree.
- Saturday 16—Willie Emerson decides to let her hair grow out.
- Monday 18—Everett Grounds has moved. No, that is a mistake he has only been visiting at the president's home.
- Tuesday 19—Lyceum number, "To the Ladies", is well received by the ladies.
- Wednesday 20—Hammacians have their pledges walk through fly paper and declare them members.
- Thursday 21—"Phamous Up An' Att 'em Novelty Company" preside in chapel. Many are healed. The most amazing case is that of "Frog" Wright.
- Friday 22—District teachers' meeting at Clinton. Mutt Herring cries because he cannot meet Miss Stewart's class.
- Saturday 23—First conference football game is won from Oklahoma City university, 20 to 13. Jake Spann scintillates.
- Monday 25—Students and faculty show the results of the teachers' meet. Everyone sleeps well in all classes.
- Tuesday 26—Girls' basketball becomes popular sport in Southwestern. Many report for practice. DeJarnette is recommended as coach.
- Wednesday 27—Juniors throw big party. "Papa" Henshaw is late to class.
- Thursday 28—Kansas City Little Symphony orchestra entertain.
- Friday 29—Pete Montgomery is still down. We think he will surely take the count this time.
- Saturday 30—Bulldogs spoil Phillips' homecoming by trouncing the Haymakers. This is the second consecutive victory for Southwestern.

November

- Monday 1—Temperamental freshies get hostile. Ninety average girls slide down stairs as part of initiatory program.
- Tuesday 2—Freshies get too hot and are cooled off by upper classmen. The cooling influence came from the icy waters of the fish pond.
- Wednesday 3—Shall we or shall we not have an Oracle?
- Thursday 4—Ricardo Martin does not appear in concert in Weatherford.
- Friday 5—Everyone is very busy. Many preparations are made to insure a big homecoming. The atmosphere is charged with T. N. T.
- Saturday 6—Homecoming is big success. Bulldogs win from Northwestern Rangers 13 to 0. Hazle Cline, as football queen, reigns supreme.
- Monday 8—Basketball girls redouble their efforts in an attempt to please their coach.
- Tuesday 9—Mrs. Bertha McCafferty Truitt reads "Merchant of Venice."
- Wednesday 10—W. A. A. girls complete their initiation. Oh! what a relief for everyone concerned.
- Thursday 11—We all go down and yell for our friends down the hill as Weatherford high romps on Clinton.
- Friday 12—Cushions will now be at a premium. Seats for all are assured for the gymnasium.
- Saturday 13—This is the day for which we have been waiting for thirteen years. The Bulldogs today did that which twelve Southwestern football teams before them have failed to do; they beat Central 6 to 3 at Edmond. Jinks runs fifty-five yards for the only touchdown.
- Monday 15—No studying today. Everyone is still talking about the Bulldog-Broncho game at Edmond.
- Tuesday 16—Professor Reven De Jarnette appears in song recital.
- Wednesday 17—Shorty Conrad answers a question in French class.
- Note: This is first page stuff.
- Thursday 18—The Bulldogs stage a track meet at Mangum. Clarendon college is defeated at Mangum 36 to 0. The "Shetlands" run wild.
- Friday 19—Joe Reynolds says, "It won't be long now."
- Saturday 20—Hi have big rook party. Miss Strite quits in the middle of a game to meet the train. Note: Her Sweetie was due on the big "choo choo."
- Monday 22—The thing to do is Beat O. B. U.
- Tuesday 23—Ocella Royce receives a caller. It is rumored that the gentleman in question is Pete Montgomery.
- Wednesday 24—The final football pep meeting is staged. The dispensers of pep go home feeling that they have done all that is possible. We anxiously await the coming of a new day.
- Thursday 25—The Bulldogs take the "thunder" out of the "Thundering Herd" for a 9 to 3 victory. With this victory goes the state championship, the first football title in the history of Southwestern.
- Friday 26—The business men of Weatherford take the football team to Oklahoma City for a banquet at the Huckins and to see "Rose Marie." It can never be said that the champion Bulldogs were not treated royally.
- Saturday 27—Closed; everyone has gone home.
- Monday 29—Nothing to be thankful for now until next year. Classes are just the same.
- Tuesday 30—Many are absent from Mr. McCormick's math classes. No doubt some are gone forever.

- Monday 24—Gold is ordered for Southwestern. No, we are not praying for a gold mine, the medals for the S. W. I. M. are ordered.
- Tuesday 25—Girls are wearing their best smiles. Grapenuts.
- Wednesday 26—F. I. and D. club choose Miss Stewart as sponsor.
- Thursday 27—Waistlines are wandering. F. and F.'s cause restlessness.
- Friday 28—A big holdup is staged at Cordell. Red Ogden is the victim.
- Saturday 29—Some have dates and others find happiness elsewhere.
- Monday 31—Class politics get hot. "Dark Horses" rumored. They are so dark that they cannot be seen.

Education and Power

HUMAN MUSCLES supplied the power of the Ancients.

HORSE POWER, the energy of beasts broken and trained to the heavier labors necessary to existence, provided an upward step in later ages.

STEAM and the INTERNAL COMBUSTION ENGINE, developed during the Nineteenth century, placed at Man's disposal sources of power the magnitude of which was never before realized.

ELECTRIC POWER also was developed during the Nineteenth century.

But it was not until the last decade that the potentialities of Electric Power were generally realized.

ELECTRIC POWER IS THE POWER OF THE PRESENT, and there is no question but that it is likewise the POWER OF THE FUTURE.

Fuel resources are exhaustible, are in fact, being rapidly exhausted.

Electricity is inexhaustible. Fuel used in the manufacture of electricity greatly enhances the amount of energy obtainable through consumption of a given quantity of fuel.

The educational system of the present deals to an extent with the development and the possibilities of electricity.

THE EDUCATIONAL SYSTEM OF THE FUTURE MUST DEAL TO A STILL GREATER EXTENT WITH THIS SUPERLATIVE SOURCE OF ENERGY.

Among the student body of the Southwestern State Teachers' College are some who are destined to be among the leaders of education and commerce a few years hence.

STUDY OF THE HISTORY, OF THE PROBLEMS AND OF THE ACHIEVEMENTS OF THE PUBLIC UTILITIES WILL AID MATERIALLY IN EQUIPPING THESE POTENTIAL LEADERS FOR THE WORK AHEAD OF THEM.

Be it ever so humble, there's no grades like our own.

You have heard of the man who was so narrow-minded his ears rubbed together. A worse case has been found. His ears cross.

Elizabeth Myers said to her father, "Daddy, may I use the big, black car tonight?"

Pat: You're a poet and don't know it, your feet show it; they're Long-fellows.

Mike: Say, you're getting Whittier and Whittier."

—Michigan Gargoyle.

"Oh, tell me, Sister Penelope, do you like a drop of gin on a frosty morning?"

"No Sister Hortense, I'd much rather have mine on a lump of sugar."
—Carolina Buccaneer.

Bill: Jack's getting terribly absent-minded. Just the other day he kissed a woman by mistake.

Pill: Thought it was his wife, eh?

Bill: No, it was his wife.

Miss Jencke: Know anything about Shakespeare's works?

Mutt Herring: What kind of a factory is it?

"This sort of thing can't go on," announced Lattie Boyd as she tried to struggle into Mary Catherine's one-piece bathing suit.

Waiter: Will you have pie, sir?

Rankin Williams: Is it customary?

Waiter: No, it's apple.

She plays bridge, but not too well.
She talks, but not too much.
She dances, but not too often.
She drinks, but not too many.
She thinks, but not too hard.
She dresses, but not too thoroughly.
She rides, but not too far.
She laughs, but not too soon.
She's nice, BUT NOT TO ME.

—Dartmouth Jack o'Lantern

Say It For Life

An Elgin, Hamilton, or Illinois Watch should be a part of the "life-estate" of every man and woman. There is no finer personal possession in timepieces for elegance and efficiency.

Orville Prier to Marie Moyers.

If a truck accidentally runs over my midst—
Or an idiot pulls off my head—
If some murderer does as some other one didst
And I am found chopped up in bed—
If I happen to drown or happen to do
Something terribly horrid or gory—
Say, man on the desk if it happens, will you
At least credit me with the story?

Mrs. Burris: Ted, I want a divorce.

Ted: Great heavens, woman! What for?

Mrs. Burris: Well, everyone else I know has one.

STEEL YOURSELF FOR THIS
Curfew shall not ring tonight,
I'm afraid they'll have to scrap her;
For Pop had to have his iron—
So he went and et the clapper.
