

SME Invites SWOSU Students to Meeting

02.15.2005

All SWOSU students are invited to an upcoming meeting this Thursday, February 17, of the Society of Manufacturing Engineers.

Co-faculty sponsor Johnnie Hixson said SME will meet at 12:20 p.m. in Room 207 of the Technology Brick Building. Free pizza will be served.

Hixson said SME will talk about Engineering Week activities on February 21-25, an upcoming student leadership conference called Houstex, and an upcoming paint ball activity.

Students who would like more information about SME should come to the meeting or contact Hixson in the Technology Department.
