

Cheyenne and Arapaho Tribes to Meet with CATC Students

01.27.2014

Cheyenne and Arapaho Tribal College students are invited to a “Higher Education Meet and Greet” this Wednesday, January 29, at Southwestern Oklahoma State University in Weatherford.

The event will be held from 11 a.m. until 1 p.m. in the Commuter Lounge of the Memorial Student Center. Refreshments will be served.

The purpose of the meet/greet, according to Wanda Whiteman, is to introduce the higher education staff of the tribe, provide information to assist students in applying for scholarships/grants, and offering information on the various services available.
