

Synergy Brass Quintet Coming to SWOSU

02.17.2005

Synergy Brass Quintet, based on the East coast of the United States, has been bringing a new, exciting brand of chamber music to audiences since 1996.

Synergy Brass Quintet will perform in concert this Sunday, February 20, at Southwestern Oklahoma State University in Weatherford.

The concert begins at 4:30 p.m. in Room 101 of the Music Building on the SWOSU campus. Admission is free.

Synergy Brass Quintet, based on the East coast of the United States, has been bringing a new, exciting brand of chamber music to audiences since 1996. Their high artistic standard and unstoppable energy have made them one of the country's finest brass ensembles, according to Dr. Terry Segress, chairman of the SWOSU Music Department.

Synergy's touring schedule has brought them across the United States including performances at major music festivals such as Ravinia and Tanglewood. Always striving to reach new audiences and bring new listeners to classical music, the Synergy Brass Quintet brings audiences a wide variety of music, ranging from the early Renaissance to the Modern to Jazz and Rock.

The group dedicates time to the education of young musicians. The ensemble has served as Quintet in Residence at the Boston University Tanglewood Institute. Whether through workshops, masterclasses or school shows, the Synergy Brass Quintet is always using their talents to help tomorrow's musicians and bringing their passion for music to the next generation.
