

Country Star David Nail to Headline SWOSUPalooza

01.22.2013

SWOSU's Student Government Association announced country music phenom David Nail will be the headline performer for the 14th annual SWOSUPalooza in Weatherford. SWOSUPalooza will be Thursday, April 25, and will be held at a new outdoor venue this year—the Doug Villines Pavilion at Weatherford's B.O.P. Ram Rodeo Grounds in Rader Park. Admission will be free.

Nail is a rising star in country music with top 20 songs "Red Light" and "Turning Home." His second album, The Sound of a Million Dreams, featured the number one hit, "Let it Rain." Nail has recently been on tour with fellow country musicians Little Big Town.

For more information about the event, contact SGA Special Projects Secretary Rachel Bradley at bradleyr@student.swosu.edu or SGA Public Relations Secretary Blaine Boyd at boydb@student.swosu.edu.