With basketball practice officially underway, the SWOSU Basketball teams held their unofficial kickoff event for the 2015-16 season – ASAP Energy Fan Jam – on Monday. The event was held in the Pioneer Cellular Event Center.

President to be inducted into WOHF Hall of Fame

Southwestern President Randy Beutler is one of four individuals who will be inducted into the Western Oklahoma Hall of Fame during a November 10 banquet in Elk City.

Beutler, the 17th president of SWOSU, will be inducted along with Richard L. “Dick” Dugger, Sage Kimzey and Ted Kimzey.

The 43rd annual WOHF Hall of Fame banquet will be held at 7 p.m. at the Elk City United Methodist Church. A social hour/original art show will begin the evening at 6 p.m. Tickets are $20 and can be reserved by sending a check to: WOHF, P.O. Box 542, Elk City OK 73648. No tickets will be sold at the door.

Each year WOHF nominees are honored for bringing attention to, preserving the heritage of, or providing a more prosperous future for western Oklahoma.

Before coming to SWOSU in 2010, Beutler served as legislative liaison to the House of Representatives for Governor Brad Henry. He is a former state representative from District 60 (the Elk City area where he was born and raised on a ranch north of Elk). The Canute High School and SWOSU graduate was reelected three times without opposition and served until 2000.

Former SWOSU President John Hays hired Beutler to work at the university in 2006. He assisted with external affairs, legislative matters, grant development and developed the President's Leadership Class.

Dugger is a former district attorney in western Oklahoma and both Kimzeys hold unprecedented world records in the Professional Rodeo Cowboy Association.

THE SOUTHWESTERN is the student newspaper of Southwestern Oklahoma State University. It is published every Wednesday during the fall and spring semesters, except during holidays and finals week. Students in the editing class serve as section editors, and students in the news gathering and reporting class serve as writers. The editorial board meets every Wednesday at 2:00 p.m. in the journalism lab, Campbell 211.

THE SOUTHWESTERN encourages comments from the student body, faculty, and administration in the form of letters to the editor. All letters must include a name for consideration; however, the name may be withheld upon request. The opinions expressed within signed editorials are the opinions of the writers; the opinions expressed in unsigned, boxed editorials are the opinion of the staff. Neither is necessarily the opinion of the university administration, staff or faculty.

Pageants to be held separately

Sometimes good things force changes, and that time has come this year for the Miss SWOSU Pageant board.

Southwestern has hosted a preliminary pageant for the Miss Oklahoma Pageant since 1958. In 2008, the university added the Miss SWOSU's Outstanding Teen Pageant with the winner advancing to the state pageant. Since 2008, SWOSU has hosted a joint pageant between the two with participation numbers continuing to increase.

Instead of having one pageant featuring both the Miss and teen candidates, separate pageants are being held this year on Nov. 7 with the Miss SWOSU's Outstanding Teen Pageant being held at 3 p.m. in the Fine Arts Center with the Miss SWOSU Pageant being held later that evening at 7 p.m., also in the Fine Arts Center.

This year's Miss SWOSU Pageant has 16 candidates—the largest pageant since 2006. The teen pageant will have seven contestants.

“It was a hard decision for the board because the joint pageant has been so successful,” said Debbie Brown, director of the SWOSU pageants. “But, we’ve grown and it is to the point that we needed to separate the pageants, at least for this year.”

Area residents who attend the teen pageant in the afternoon will also be able to use their ticket to attend the evening's Miss SWOSU Pageant. Ticket prices are $5 for SWOSU students with a valid I.D.

Miss SWOSU Lacey Anderson and Miss SWOSU's Outstanding Teen Meaghan Dorn will be entertaining during the pageants on November 7.

Southwestern Oklahoma State University Professors Dr. Brian Campbell and Dr. David Esjornson (far right) recently represented the Oklahoma Summer Science and Mathematics Academies at the Governor's 3rd annual Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics (STEM) Summit in Oklahoma City. The day-long summit brought together over 400 participants—Oklahoma business leaders, educators, students and other key stakeholders—with the focus being the critical importance of STEM for future economic growth in the state. With Campbell and Esjornson are (from left) Oklahoma Regents for Higher Education representatives Matt Higdon, Dr. Cynthia Brown and Lisa Nelson; and Governor Mary Fallin.

Football team handles OBU in road game

SHAWNEE, Okla. — The SWOSU Football team scored in all three phases on Saturday as they earned their first road victory of the season, defeating Oklahoma Baptist 42-14 at Crain Family Stadium. The victory improves the Bulldogs to 5-3 with three games remaining in the season.

Special teams got the action started as Trevon Hartfield returned the opening kickoff 87 yards to set the Bulldogs up with great field position. On fourth and goal from the two, starting quarterback Brooks Robertson plunged in for his first career touchdown, giving the Bulldogs and early 7-0 lead.

The lead grew to 21-0 early in the second quarter as Kenneth Martey went in untouched from four yards and a punt blocked by Daylan Dial was recovered by Dominic Blue in the end zone for a special teams score. Oklahoma Baptist scored on their final drive of the half, leaving the Bulldogs with a 21-7 lead at the break.

After a scoreless third quarter, SWOSU's Conner Bays snared his third interception of the year and raced 41 yards down the visitor's sideline before finding the end zone and making the score 28-7. OBU answered on their next drive before Martey added a one-yard touchdown run and DJ. Jones scored on a punt return for the second straight week — this time from 69 yards — making the final score 42-14.

Conner Bays reaches for a pass during SWOSU's easy win over OBU. The win puts the Bulldogs at 5-3. The next game is at home at 2 p.m. on Oct. 31 at ASAP Energy Field.

Oklahoma Baptist actually outgained the Bulldogs with 309 yards of total offense, compared to 295 for the Bulldogs, but the complete-game effort from SWOSU was the key to victory. Karl-trell Henderson rushed for 97 yards on 16 carries and Kenneth Martey had 70 yards and two scores on 17 carries to lead the Bulldog offensive attack. Brooks Robertson was 13-for-18 passing for 108 yards, finding Jones six times for a team-best 39 yards.

Bays led the SWOSU defense with eight tackles, one-half tackle for loss, a pass breakup and the pick six while Jake Doyle and Austin Loomis had seven and six tackles, respectively.

Clinton Horn had two sacks for the Bulldogs while collier Ward and Julian Cole each had one also.

The victory is the third straight for the Bulldogs and they will take a 5-3 record into Senior Day against Harding next Saturday at 2:00 pm at ASAP Energy Field. A victory over the Bisons would give SWOSU their first four-game winning streak since 1996.

Isela Sandoval and Lauren Parenica led the Bulldogs to a fourth place finish at the Great American Conference championship Saturday.

Runners set personal records in conference championship

MONTICELLO, Ark. — Isela Sandoval and Lauren Parenica put in All-Great American Conference performances as the SWOSU placed fourth with 118 points for the second straight season at the GAC Championship on Saturday morning. It is the third time SWOSU has finished fourth at the conference meet since moving to the GAC in 2011.

Sandoval finished 13th overall with a time of 18:26.64 to earn Second Team All-GAC honors. Parenica was not far behind after crossing the line in 18:40.44 to place 16th overall, also good for Second Team honors. Their times were the third- and fifth-fastest times in program history for the 5k. It is the first time either Sandoval or Parenica has earned All-GAC honors.

Next across the line for the Bulldogs was Robin Sheehan, finishing in 34th place place with a time of 19:35.26. Brooke Lizotte posted a time of 19:57.94 for 46th overall, while the final scoring time for SWOSU was owned by Sierra Campbell in 74th place and a time of 21:04.88.

Running in her first meet of the season, Mikayla Howorka placed 82nd after crossing the line in 21:39.27. The final SWOSU runner, Lena Garrison, completed the course in 21:42.17 for 84th overall.

“It was a great day for SWOSU Cross Country,” said SWOSU head coach Shane Brookshire. “All six of our runners ran season-best times, and four of them also posted personal records. Isela and Lauren ran really well, moving into the top five in program history while earning all-conference honors. I’m very proud of these women and the work they’ve done, and I can’t wait to see what we do at regionals!”

Harding won the team title with a perfect score of 15 points, led by Ewa Zaborowska who finished in 16:44.75.

The Bulldogs now turn their sites to the Central Region Championship in two weeks’ time on November 7 in Joplin, Missouri.

Teams plan ‘pink out’

WEATHERFORD, Okla. — The fall athletic programs at SWOSU have joined the fight against Breast Cancer and they will be hosting three different ‘Pink Out’ games next week on their home playing fields. Fans are encouraged to join the fight as well by wearing pink as they cheer on the Bulldogs.

SWOSU Soccer and Volleyball will both be wearing their alternate pink uniforms next Thursday, October 29 for a doubleheader of Great American Conference action. Bulldog soccer hosts Southern Nazarene at 4:00 pm at the SWOSU Athletic Complex while the volleyball team will be hosting Southeastern Oklahoma State at 7:00 pm inside the Pioneer Cellular Event Center.

Bulldog football will host their Pink Out game on Halloween as they welcome Harding to town for Senior Day at ASAP Energy Field. SWOSU kicks off against the Bisons at 2:00 pm, wrapping up another busy day that also includes the soccer team hosting Oklahoma Baptist at 11:00 am for their Senior Day.

While fans in attendance are asked to wear pink to the games, they can also get involved with the fight as Sigma Sigma Chi will be taking donations for the American Cancer Society at each event.

SWOSU handles triangular, pushes winning streak to 5

SWOSU Sweeps Triangular, Push Winning Streak to Five

WEATHERFORD, Okla. — In front of a home crowd that included several former members of the SWOSU Volleyball program, the current squad set a new single-season record for victories (16) and extended a school-record winning streak to five games with wins over Henderson State and Panhandle State on Saturday at the Pioneer Cellular Event Center.

The Bulldogs improve to 16-8 on the year and 8-3 in Great American Conference play as they have now won five straight games and nine of their last ten dating back to early October. SWOSU also improves to 8-1 on their home court this season and they remain tied for third in the league standings, one game out of second place.

“We’ve done a good job of holding home court this week and building momentum as we head into the final stretch of the season,” SWOSU Head Coach Josh Collins said.

“It was great to get to bring back former members of the SWOSU Volleyball team and let them see our current team in action. It’s very meaningful for our team to get that type of support from our alumni.”

SWOSU 3, Henderson State 0

Jill Green had a career-high 15 kills to lead the Bulldogs to victory in Saturday’s opener. Green had just three hitting errors on 34 attempts and finished the match hitting .353. Carly Zak added 11 kills and a team-high 16 digs as the Bulldogs won the match in straight sets.

SWOSU hit .300 for the match with a hitting percentage of at least .240 in each set, while Henderson State was also successful offensively, hitting .208 against the Dawgs. The Reddies had more digs than SWOSU with 43 compared to 36 for the home team, but the Bulldogs took control at the net with eight blocks compared to four for HSU.

Kayla Hebert had 33 assists to lead SWOSU and DeLayni Fine had eight kills and a team-best five blocks (one solo, four assist). Kelsi Schmidtberger added four (one solo, three assist) blocks and was one of three players, along with Hebert and Holt, who tallied a pair of kills.

SWOSU 3, Panhandle State 0

For as impressive of a performance as she had in the opener, Jill Green saved an even better effort for the night cap as she hit .560 with 14 kills and zero hitting errors on 25 attempts to lead the Bulldogs past Panhandle State in another three-set sweep.

The Bulldogs were again impressive offensively with a .388 team hitting percentage after committing just seven hitting errors and not being blocked. Carly Zak had nine kills Paige Holt had five as eight different players recorded a kill in the match. Kayla Hebert had 18 assists and Kodee Avery had 12 after relieving Hebert at setter for the final set.

SWOSU also won the defensive battle with 42 digs, led by Kaila Lancaster with 10 and at least one from eleven different players. Holt led the Bulldogs with five assist blocks as the Dawgs finished with six as a team, while the Aggies did not record a block.

resident spotlight Kylie Morgan

Hometown: Choctaw, OK
Classification: 3rd Year
Major: Pre-nursing
Resident Hall: Stewart Hall

Why did you choose SWOSU?
Partially because of softball opportunities and partially because SWOSU was financially my best option besides staying close to home.

What are your hobbies?
I like doing a lot of different things in my spare time, but recently I've taken up sewing- only simple things though! You'd be amazed at what you can make or fix with a needle and thread.

What do you want to do when you graduate?
Not entirely sure. One day at a time, my friends.

What's your favorite SWOSU moment?
Is it fair to pick my whole freshman year? That year I met so many great people throughout sports and around campus, and I had so much fun with everything I did (not that I don't now). Aside from that, Homecoming was the only football game I've been able to go to this year, and between the football boys, band, and fireworks, all three were fantastic! #allhailthequeen

resident spotlight Rachel Jamieson

Hometown: Edmond, OK
Classification: Freshman
Major: Mass Communication
Resident Hall: Oklahoma Hall

Why did you choose your major?
I chose my major because I'm good with people and get paid to meet new people.

What's a secret talent that you have?
My secret talent isn't really a secret. It's just taking pictures with cool strangers that I meet.

Who has been a major influence in your life?
My grandma has been through hell and back and yet stays a strong woman of God and being a light to others through everyone she meets as well know.

What's your favorite SWOSU moment?
My favorite SWOSU moment was either my roommate accepting Christ, or gaining 8 new older sisters that are my RAs.

Ping Pong Tournament

Neff Hall's Resident Advisors are hosting a ping pong tournament on November 12th at 6pm in Neff Hall's game room. A signup sheet will be available at Neff Hall's front desk for competitors to lock in their spot in the tournament bracket. Neff Hall has been hosting this semi-annual event for years. A Tournament Plaque is proudly posted in the front of Neff Hall. Come by Neff to read the names of past champions and signup for your chance to be forever glorified on the plaque! Also... first and second place receive Stiga rubber paddles; first place finisher receives a 3 star paddle and second receives a 2 star paddle! Good luck everyone!
