

Spaghetti and Silent Auction Planned by SWOSU OSAT

01.31.2007

A spaghetti dinner and silent auction is planned Thursday, February 8, by the Southwestern Oklahoma State University Organization of Student Athletic Trainers. The events will take place from 6-8:30 p.m. in the Memorial Student Center Ballroom. Koby Smith, spokesperson for OSAT, said the fundraiser is to help send students to several educational events, including regional and national conferences.

Tickets are $6; kids under 10 eat free. The menu includes unlimited spaghetti, salad and breadsticks.

The silent auction has such things as a hand-made SWOSU quilt, tickets to Oklahoma City Hornets and Oklahoma City Blazers games as well as tickets to a professional bull riding event in Oklahoma City. Smith said there are also additional prizes on the list.

Tickets can be purchased in advance by contacting faculty sponsor Jessica Young at 580.774.3186. Tickets can also be purchased at the door.
