BULLDOG

SOUTHWESTERN INSTITUTE OF TECHNOLOGY
WEATHERFORD, OKLAHOMA

1944

"I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

Dedication

Hundreds of young men and women who call Southwestern their alma mater are today serving their country in all branches of the armed forces—in the army, the navy, the marine corps, and the coast guard. They fight for freedom in every corner of the world—in teeming jungles, through dusty deserts, across the icy arctic, on desolate seas, along all the roads that lead, by land and sea and air, to Tokyo and Berlin.

Some are among the immortal dead who laid down the most precious of all sacrifices—life itself—for home and country. Our pledge to them is that we shall always hold sacred the ideals for which they died.

To all Southwestern men and women in the armed services of their country, WE DEDICATE THIS BOOK.

Bulldog Staff

It is with pleasure that the "Bulldog" staff presents this war-time picture story of life at Southwestern Tech.

As you turn these pages we hope you will recall pleasant memories of the year 1943-44.

We wish to thank Mr. James Craddock of the Weatherford News for valuable assistance in securing the pictures.

WHY COLLEGE?

Sad indeed will be the day for civilization, if and when man becomes content with his status of life, with the thoughts he thinks, with the deeds he does, when there is not forever beating at the doors of his soul the desire to improve mentally and to do greater things.

To us living here in America where initiative is respected and rewarded, largely falls this responsibility of progress.
