

SWOSU Pharmacy Student Wins National KE Scholarship

02.02.2010

Southwestern Oklahoma State University pharmacy student Jennifer Bennett of Waynoka is one of only six students selected nationally for a Zada M. Cooper Scholarship from the Kappa Epsilon Foundation.

Bennett, who is an active member of the SWOSU Alpha Beta chapter of KE, will receive a $500 scholarship.

Bennett has also been an officer of the American Pharmacist Association Academy of Student Pharmacists. Bennett is currently doing clinical rotations in the Tulsa area.
