

Students Needed for SWOSU Marketing Campaign

02.03.2014

Southwestern Oklahoma State University students are being sought to help SWOSU with its 2014-15 marketing campaign.

The university will produce new promotional and advertising materials this spring. Inflamed Brain, a firm that has worked with SWOSU, will select several students for inclusion in television, radio and printed materials, including both on-camera and voice-over opportunities.

Students who are interested should upload current full-color head and full-body shots and fill out a form at:

SWOSU is also looking for voice-over actors for radio and television spots.

All ethnicities are encouraged to apply. The deadline is March 3. Principals will receive monetary compensation. Applicants must be SWOSU students in good standing with the University and must be available for a full day of shooting.
