Dorothy Gourley of Ardmore has pledged $5,000 to the Southwestern Oklahoma State University Pharmacy Foundation in Weatherford as part of the university's FOCUS fundraising campaign.

Gourley said she wanted to help the SWOSU College of Pharmacy because she saw a need to provide financial assistance.

Gourley is a 1967 graduate of SWOSU. She grew up in Denver City, Texas, but has been a long-time resident of Ardmore. She and her husband, Vincent, have one son, Wade, and one daughter, Cher.

SWOSU College of Pharmacy Dean David Bergman said Gourley's gift is very much appreciated. The SWOSU College of Pharmacy is focusing on three areas during the current FOCUS campaign, including academic program enrichment, scholarships and the College of Pharmacy's museum.
