SWOSU Students Join 300 Others at Higher Ed Day

More than 300 students from Oklahoma's public colleges and universities gathered at the state Capitol on February 13 to promote the value and importance of higher education in the state. Among the Southwestern Oklahoma State University students in Weatherford who attended were (from left): SWOSU Student Government Association President Austin Loomis, Edmond (Deer Creek); Conner Patton, Tecumseh; Jayden Mills, Chickasha; and Jacie Brown, Chickasha. The students met with legislators to underscore the importance of restoring funding for higher education.
