

SWOSU Sending Three Teams to FLW College Fishing Tourney

02.11.2015

Southwestern Oklahoma State University will have three teams of two students at the FLW College Fishing Tourney that is headed to Lake Texoma on February 21 for the second of three regular-season stops in the Southern Conference.

A full field of college teams, including anglers representing six Oklahoma universities, will compete for a top award of $2,000 and a berth in the Southern Conference Championship. There will be a total of 34 teams from five states competing at the tourney.

SWOSU teams are: Collin McFeeters of Thomas and Chris Bradley of Osage; Jeremy Guest of Collinsville and Kenneth Kellems of Weatherford; and Mitchell Decker of Coweta and Dalton Warrington of Thomas.

Anglers will take off from Highport Marina in Pottsboro (TX) at 7 a.m. Weigh-in will be held at the marina beginning at 3 p.m. Takeoff and weigh-in are free and open to the public.

FLW College fishing teams compete in qualifying tournaments in one of five conferences. The top 15 teams from each regular season tournament qualify for one of five conference championship tournaments. The top 10 teams from each of the five conference championship tournaments advance to the 2016 FLW College Fishing National Championship.
