

Students Needed for SWOSU Marketing Campaign

02.06.2012

Southwestern Oklahoma State University students are being sought to help SWOSU with its 2012-13 marketing campaign.

The university will update its promotional and advertising materials this spring. Inflamed Brain, a firm that has worked with SWOSU, will be selecting several students for inclusion in television, radio and printed materials, including both on-camera and voice-over opportunities.

Students who are interested should send current full-color head and full-body shots along with a form (available in the SWOSU Public Relations & Marketing Office in Administration Building Room 205 or on the web at www.swosu.edu/news/audition.asp ) to: malenalott@me.com.

SWOSU is also looking for voice-over actors for radio and television spots.

All ethnicities are encouraged to apply.

For more information, contact Brian Adler in the SWOSU PR & Marketing Office. The deadline is March 15. Principals will receive monetary compensation. Applicants must be full or part time SWOSU students in good standing with the University and must be available for a full day of shooting.
