

Etiquette and Protocol Expert to Speak at AAUW Luncheon

02.07.2012

Jana Christian, a leading expert in the etiquette and protocol industry, will be the guest speaker at a February 24 luncheon on the campus of Southwestern Oklahoma State University in Weatherford.

Christian, president of The Etiquette School of Oklahoma, will give helpful tips at the 12 noon luncheon in the Memorial Student Center East Ballroom. The event is sponsored by the Weatherford chapter of the American Association of University Women. Everyone is invited.

The luncheon menu will be a baked potato bar, green salad and dessert. AAUW members are currently selling tickets for the luncheon and tickets are also available in the SWOSU Public Relations & Marketing Office, Room 205 Administration Building. Tickets are $10, which includes the lunch cost and $1 that is donated to the national AAUW organization. The remaining proceeds support the annual Weatherford AAUW Chapter Scholarship.

Christian founded The Etiquette School of Oklahoma, an etiquette consulting and training firm whose clients include a range of corporations and industries. Her credentials include national certification from the American School of Protocol, and she is affiliated with the American Business Etiquette Trainers Association.
