

SWOSU Employees in the Spotlight

02.07.2007

Teresa Ritter

Tony Bowman

Tony Bowman and Teresa Ritter are the employees in the spotlight for the month of February at Southwestern Oklahoma State University in Weatherford.

Bowman is a stationary engineer/welder at SWOSU. He has worked at the university for 17 years. Bowman lives in Custer City. He has a daughter, Toni, who is a sophomore at SWOSU, and a son, Ricky, who is a junior at Thomas High School. Bowman attends the First Baptist Church in Custer City. A hobby he enjoys is woodworking.

Ritter is administrative assistant in the Math Department at SWOSU. She has worked at SWOSU for two years. She and her husband, Doug, live in Weatherford. They have five children—Craig, Trent, Lindsey, Kodi, and Carl—and two grandchildren—Kylie and Sydnee. They also have two cats, Mickey and Minnie. Ritter is involved with the SWOSU Support Personnel Organization (SSPO). She enjoys working in the yard, fishing, and spending time with her family.

The employee spotlight program is sponsored by the SWOSU Support Personnel Organization.