

Two Former SWOSU Cowboys to be on The Amazing Race

02.11.2010

Jett and Cord McCoy

Former SWOSU rodeo team members Jett and Cord McCoy will be part of CBS' reality series "The Amazing Race" that begins airing February 14.

Both Jett and Cord were outstanding team members during their days at SWOSU. Both earned their degrees from SWOSU in 2003.

They will be one of 11 teams competing across five continents and eight countries on the show and competing for $1 million.

Cord is a bull rider on the Professional Bull Riders tour and a five-time International Professional Rodeo Association champion in the all-around, saddle bronc and bull riding. Jett is a four-time IPRA champion in saddle bronc riding and all-around.
