

Talent Show Planned Tuesday at SWOSU

03.28.2005

Southwestern Oklahoma State University's 3rd annual Bulldog Blitz talent show is this Tuesday, March 29, on the Weatherford campus.

Eleven individuals and groups will compete for prizes at the talent show that begins at 7 p.m. in the Fine Arts Center on the SWOSU campus. Admission is free, and the public is invited.

In addition to the talent show, the two winners of a makeover contest will make their debuts. Earlier this semester, the Collegiate Activities Board sponsored the makeover contest won by Danielle Van of Bartlesville and David Ramirez of Altus. They will be presented Tuesday night after undergoing two weeks of work on hair, tanning, teeth whitening, workouts and new clothes. Van and Ramirez will be judged by the Bulldog Blitz audience, and the winner will receive a cash prize. Both contestants will receive numerous other prizes.

Shameika Williams of CAB said SWOSU students will also be competing for cash prizes during the talent show. The top three contestants in each category—individual/group and campus organizations—will win awards.

Additional information about Tuesday's program is available at the CAB office in Room 214 of the Stafford Center. Information is also available by calling 580.774.7153 or by email at cab@swosu.edu.
