

Workshop on Prepping for the Job World Planned Tuesday at SWOSU

02.25.2015

A professional education workshop that is open to the public and all students is being held this Tuesday, March 3, at Southwestern Oklahoma State University in Weatherford.

The workshop will be held from 1-3 p.m. in the SWOSU Conference Center.

Tracy Skinner, executive director of human resources at Mustang Public Schools, and Meggan Wilson, principal at Western Oaks Middle School in the Oklahoma City Putnam City public school system, will cover preparing for a job interview, gathering professional resources, creating a great resume, and using professionalism with social media and in the workplace.
