

SWOSU Students Can Win Shopping Spree Plus Help Panorama

02.12.2007

SWOSU students will have the chance to win a $400 shopping spree from area merchants as well as provide input to the Panorama Committee this Wednesday and Thursday, February 14-15, on the Weatherford campus.

Panorama Committee members will have a booth at the University Grill in the Student Union to survey students about their interest in programs for the 2007-08 school year. All SWOSU students are invited to fill out a survey and, by doing so, will be entered in the drawing for the $400 shopping spree.

Brian Adler, chair of the Panorama Committee, said the shopping spree was donated by Weatherford area merchants.

“The Panorama Committee wants to hear from students,” Adler said. “The committee has come up with a list of 13 possible programs and we want to hear from students on their preferences. Plus, students can add suggestions also.”

The booth will be set up from 9 a.m. until 3 p.m. on both days. Committee members encourage students to stop by and fill out a survey.

Members of the Panorama Committee are: SWOSU faculty and administrators Midge Gerber, Teri Stubbs, Mary Aspedon, Gerard East, Steve Strickler, Melinda Burgess, Kenneth Tillett, Brian Campbell, Cynthia Foust, Kevin Bartel, David Clark and Adler; students Kirk Hatton, Koby Smith, Carissa Marquis, Jordan Eaton and Donovan Fuller; and community representative Phillip Reid.
