Katz to Address AAUW Meeting

In honor of National Women's History Month, Dr. Heather Katz will speak at the next meeting of the American Association of University Women on Monday, March 23, at 7 p.m.

The public is invited, and admission is free.

Katz, assistant professor in the SWOSU Social Sciences Department, will give a presentation on inequities in the women's suffrage movement, recent representation of women of color in voting, and continued disenfranchisement of minority voters as a whole.

The event will be held in the Memorial Student Center East Ballroom.
