

27 March, 2020

Student Success Center Helping SWOSU Students

Southwestern Oklahoma State University's Student Success Center (SSC) is helping students during virtual learning that is going on at the Weatherford and Sayre campuses.

According to Dr. Veronica McGowan of the SSC, the center is offering services such as:

- Live help from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Chat with us via Zoom!
- Pre-advising
- Navigating student resources
- Online study halls
- Online tutoring
- Questions about computer needs
- Laptops available for checkout
- Academic Coaching
- Help with time management (etc.)

The Center for Excellence in Teaching and Learning and the SSC have been working in partnership over the past few months to provide an online platform for tutoring services. UpSwing can be found in the single-sign on portal. Academic coaches and tutors are available 24 hours a day, seven days a week in UpSwing.

The following are staff members and their email addresses to be contacted:

- Dr. Veronica McGowan (veronica.mcgowan@swosu.edu)—Activity Director
- Amanda Currier (amanda.currier@swosu.edu)—Academic Coach
- Casey Dowling (casey.dowling@swosu.edu)—Academic Coach
- Tally Reagan (tally.reagan@swosu.edu)—ITS Specialist
- Terry Rickel (terry.rickel@swosu.edu)—Admin Assistant