

SWOSU Master's Degree Candidates Completing Internships

02.20.2013

Fifty three graduate students from the Educational Administration Master's degree program at Southwestern Oklahoma State University in Weatherford are completing administrative internships in schools across the state of Oklahoma during the current spring semester.

Fifty three graduate students from the Educational Administration Master's degree program at Southwestern Oklahoma State University in Weatherford are completing administrative internships in schools across the state of Oklahoma during the current spring semester.

The students, who are currently classroom teachers, recently completed a day-long orientation at the Dr. Joe Anna Hibler Education Center under the direction of SWOSU faculty Dr. Mary Aspedon, Meghan Eliason and Andy North. Upon completion of the internship, students will be eligible for graduation in May or August.

School districts hosting the interns include: Apache, Bartlesville, Bluejacket, Burns Flat, Chelsea, Claremore, Collinsville, Cushing, Edmond, Elgin, Gage, Hammon, Hildale, Hollis, Kingfisher, Lawton, Mannford, Moore, Muskogee, Mustang, Newcastle, Norman, Oak Grove, Oklahoma City, Putnam City, Ripley, Sallisaw, Springer, Stillwater, Timberlake, Tipton, Tulsa, Vici, Wagoner, Weatherford and Yale.

For more information on the Educational Administration degree program, contact Dr. Aspedon at 580.774.3196 or mary.aspedon@swosu.edu.