

Barnes Named Director of Student Center & Auxiliary Services at SWOSU

02.24.2014

Robert Barnes was recently promoted as the new Director of Student Center and Auxiliary Services at Southwestern Oklahoma State University in Weatherford.

Barnes has been employed at SWOSU for 25 years, working in food services and serving 23 of those years as the assistant director of Student Center and Auxiliary Services. He has served as interim director after the retirement of Duncan Taylor in the fall of 2013.

Barnes is a 1987 graduate of SWOSU. He and his wife, Tina, have two children, both who are students at SWOSU.

The auxiliary service offices are located on the second floor of the Memorial Student Center. Barnes can also be reached at robert.barnes@swosu.edu or 580.774.3783.
