

SWOSU Nursing Students Hold Dental Health Day at Burcham

03.01.2010

Southwestern Oklahoma State University School of Nursing students recently held Dental Health Teach Day at Burcham Elementary School in Weatherford. SWOSU student Janae Chittum uses a puppet to teach dental health to a group of Burcham Elementary students.
