

Final Professional Job Search Tips Seminar is February 22

02.17.2012

Southwestern Oklahoma State University's Career Services office has held a series of professional job search tip seminars throughout the month of February for students, faculty/staff and community members and the final free seminar is coming up Wednesday, February 22, on the Weatherford campus.

SWOSU Human Resources Assistant Director Darla Davenport presentation will focus on common hiring practices. The session is at 12 noon in the Bonny Board Room (formerly Skyview Room) in the Memorial Student Center. Participants are asked to bring their own lunch.

The seminar is open to everyone but registration for the session is needed by going to: www.swosu.edu/careers/events.asp.
