

Faculty Chamber Recital this Thursday at SWOSU

02.25.2014

A faculty chamber recital will be held this Thursday, February 27, at Southwestern Oklahoma State University on the Weatherford Campus.

The 7 p.m. recital in the Berrong Music Hall will feature 11 of SWOSU's faculty members. Two faculty members will do vocal performances, and instrumental performances will include a flute solo and the faculty brass quintet.

Composers of the performance repertoire include Finzi, Higdon, Laitman, and Copland. The newly discovered "Quiet City" by Copland features the clarinet, saxophone, trumpet and piano and will be an exciting performance, according to Dr. Stacey DiPaolo.

Admission is free and open to the public.
