

Dodge Ball Tourney Planned Tuesday at SWOSU to Benefit Relay for Life

03.07.2011

There will be dodge ball matches to benefit the American Cancer Society's Relay for Life this Tuesday, March 8, starting at 5 p.m. in the SWOSU Wellness Center on the Weatherford campus.

SWOSU students are invited to attend and participate. The cost is $5 per person. Students who show up to play will be separated into teams. Residence halls at SWOSU will have teams representing Oklahoma, Stewart, Rogers, Neff and Jefferson halls. The Greek organizations will also have teams.

Competition will be men against men and women against women. There will be 20 dodge balls in play at all times. Trophies will be awarded to the winning teams.

The event is sponsored by the Collegiate Activities Board. Phi Delta Chi fraternity will be serving "sliders." Also, various styles of Relay for Life t-shirts and sweat pants will be on sale.
