

Take Back the Night Zoom Meeting Planned Monday

23 April, 2020

A virtual meeting focusing on the topics of domestic violence, stalking and resources for victims of sexual assault will take place this Monday, April 27, at 7 p.m.

Dr. Wendy Yoder, coordinator of retention management at Southwestern Oklahoma State University in Weatherford, will lead the meeting that is being sponsored by the American Association of University Women and the SWOSU Dean of Students office. Everyone is invited to participate.

The topics of discussion promote the mission of Take Back the Night, an organization focused on sexual assault awareness and supporting victims. The Monday event is part of sexual assault awareness efforts on campus. See <https://takebackthenight.org/> for more resources.
