

SOSUNSA Officers Leading Busy Chapter

03.04.2010

Officers of Southwestern Oklahoma State University's Student Nursing Association have been busy during the 2009-10 school. SOSUNSA raised money to purchase a Wii for the Weatherford Living Center and has been collecting old cell phones to help raise money for an organization that helps prevent abuse against women. They are currently taking donations for baby baskets, diapers sizes (2-3-4) and wipes for the Weatherford Pregnancy Care Center. Donations can be taken to the SWOSU School of Nursing. Officers include (front from left): Jade Wyre, Stroud, reporter; Erica Edwards, Walters, secretary; and Lexi Hinz, Sentinel, junior representative. Back from left- Emillee Baker, Hobart, president; Kodie Carter, Forgan, senior representative; John Rogers, Weatherford, senior vice president; and Evan Taylor, Weatherford, ONSA liaison. Not pictured is treasurer Carol Garrison.
