

Chickasha, Weatherford and Drummond Win Sweepstakes Awards at SWOSU Interscholastic Meet

03.27.2015

Chickasha, Weatherford and Drummond high schools won sweepstakes titles at the 102nd annual Southwestern Oklahoma State University Interscholastic Meet held March 26 on the Weatherford campus.

Chickasha won the Class I title, Weatherford took top honors in Class II for the fifth straight year and Drummond won Class III.

SWIM Director Jennifer Dickey said 72 schools from around Oklahoma competed in the academic contest, which has been a traditional event on the SWOSU campus since 1913. Dickey said 2,366 tests were given during the day.

The number of students enrolled in grades nine through 12 determines school class. Schools with 600 or more students are in Class I, 151 to 599 in Class II, and 150 and less in Class III.

In the sweepstakes competition, finishing second and third in Class I were Yukon High School and Putnam City High School, respectively. In Class II, Chisholm High School finished second and Cache High School won third place. In Class III, Corn Bible Academy won second place, while Boone-Apache High School finished in third place.

School and individual winners were also announced in the nine different categories of competition which were: fine arts, biological sciences, business, computer science, language and literature, mathematics, physical sciences, social sciences and technology.
