

SWOSU Hosting Onsite Art Competition This Wednesday

03.08.2010

Southwestern Oklahoma State University Art Department will host its 2010 onsite high school student art competition this Wednesday, March 10, on the Weatherford campus.

Art Department Chair Cliff McMahon said about 200 students are expected for the event that will begin at 8:30 a.m. and continue throughout the day.

Students will compete in a number of categories. Prizes and scholarships will be awarded, and refreshments will be served.
