

SWOSU-Sayre PBL Students to Compete at State

03.08.2010

Members of the Southwestern Oklahoma State University-Sayre chapter of Phi Beta Lambda (PBL) will travel to Norman for the State Leadership Conference March 25-27.

Five SWOSU-Sayre students will compete in business skills events at the conference.

The top two finishers in each category will have the opportunity to compete in the National Leadership Conference this summer at Nashville, Tennessee.

Cyndy Blevins of Sayre will compete in Business Communication and Management Concepts; Bill Akins of Sayre in Client Service and Administration; Petra Acosta of Sayre in Human Resource Management and Management Concepts; Kelsey Wynn of Merritt in Financial Analysis and Decision Making, and Business Law; and Mandy Hopkins of Mangum will compete in Business Law and Marketing Concepts.

For more information about PBL, contact SWOSU-Sayre faculty member Holly Hernandez at 580.928.5533.