

SWOSU Disc Dawgs Qualify for National Tourney

03.30.2015

Aaron Godwin of Bixby and John Srader of Shattuck are members of the SWOSU disc golf team in Weatherford. Four members of the team will be heading to South Carolina on April 15-18 for a national tournament.

The Southwestern Oklahoma State University Disc Dawgs have qualified for the National Collegiate Disc Golf Championship Tourney.

The national tourney is set for April 15-18 in North Augusta, S.C.

The team traveled to two tournaments in Jonesboro (AR) and St. Louis (MO) this year. At Jonesboro at the MidSouth Collegiate Open, the SWOSU Blue team placed third, which qualified the team for the national tourney.

Heading to North Augusta will be: Matt Mauldin, Beggs; Austin Carter, Oklahoma City (Putnam City North); Mason Snider, Duncan; and John Srader, Shattuck.

SWOSU's home course is the 18-hole disc golf course located at Rader Park in Weatherford.