

Air-Evac Team Assists SWOSU Nursing Students

The Air-Evac Lifeteam from Elk City recently assisted Southwestern Oklahoma State University senior trauma nursing students in practicing their trauma skills. SWOSU students (from left) Casey Turner, Beverly Aiello and Mikella Primm get assistance from Mary Barnes, a flight nurse with the Air-Evac team.

Air-Evac flight medic Don Walker watches as Taylor Karlin prepares to intubate a mannequin. In addition to Barnes and Walker, the Air-Evac team consisted of flight medic Larry Salsbury and program manager/flight medic Rodney Baker.
